Councillor calls for more people to use historic site

£1.5m BID TO REVAMP PARK

Report by Jamie Brassington

A SENIOR councillor is calling on more people to visit and enjoy a Dudley park where a £1.5 million revamp is in the pipeline.

Planning boss councillor Ian Kettle said he would be delighted if a bid for the extra cash from the Heritage Lottery Fund were to be successful at Stevens Park in Quarry Bank.

A group made up of the Friends of Stevens Park and Dudley Council have already received around £100,000 this year for stage one of the project. Now they are gearing up to submit a bid for the further funding, which would pay for a new community hub and cafe to be built at the park on Thorns Road, near Merry Hill shopping centre.

Councillor Ian Kettle, cabinet member for planning and economic development, said: "I would be delighted if the bid was to be successful. I would encourage anyone to make use of the park."

Proposals for the project include the renovation of Tintern House, a historical former farmhouse in the park, for use as a community facility.

Difference

Quarry Bank and Dudley Wood ward councillor David Sparks, who is chairman of the park friends group, said: "We are hoping that the bid will ultimately be successful because it would make a massive difference to the further regeneration of an historic Black Country park."

Councillor Sparks said the friends, working in partnership with Dudley Council and an unnamed third party, received £100,000 to fund stage one of the project, which will help with submitting the £1.5m bid. The project also aims to illustrate Quarry Bank history at the park, which also includes Quarry Bank War Memorial and sports facilities.

BEANZ MEANZ BATH TIME FOR FUNDRAISER LOUIS

Louis Johnson in the middle of his bath of beans, which helped to raise £197 for the Mary Stevens Hospice in Stourbridge

BRITISH Citizen Youth Award winner Louis Johnson made a meal of his latest fundraiser.

The 11-year-old spent 90 minutes sitting in a bath full of beans and collected £197 for Mary Stevens Hospice in Stourbridge.

The challenge took place during the hospice's family fun day in Oldswinford on Saturday.

It took the contents of 150 tins to fill the bath and Waitrose provided 100 of these free of charge with the remainder being donated by other well-wishers.

Louis had no trouble sitting there for longer than the three members of Fizzogs, the dancing grannies, who also took part in the event.

His proud mother Teresa, aged 44, speaking at their Tettenhall Wood home: "He only got out when he did because he wanted to help raise money for Cure Leukaemia and Wolves goalkeeper Carl Ikeme, who is currently being treated for the disease."

Louis, named Young Star of the Year at last year's Express & Star Great Big Thank You awards, became the first person in the West Midlands to receive the recently introduced British Citizen Youth Award last October in recognition of his fundraising.

GAMBLING £12m casino gets licence approvals

A £12 million casino is odds-on for Dudley's Castlegate Park after it secured vital gambling and drinks licences.

Castle Casino, on Castle Hill, aims to relocate to a modern new building at the nearby leisure park and relaunch as Casino 36.

The casino, which will be on a separate floor to a bingo hall at the premises, has also obtained a 24-hour gambling licence.

Casino 36, the company which also runs a casino in Wolverhampton, is investing more than £12 million to deliver a second site in Dudley, creating up to 100 jobs.

Tragedy as Kyle, aged 11, hit by lorry

Kyle Bastable, aged 11

AN 11-year-old boy died after being hit by a lorry near Birchley Island, Oldbury.

Kyle Bastable, also known as Joe by relatives, was hit by a DPD lorry close to the Shell garage. The youngster was pronounced dead at the scene.

The driver of the lorry involved in the incident off Wolverhampton Road is helping police with their enquiries.

West Midlands Police said it was called at around 10pm on Thursday to reports that a pedestrian had been struck by a lorry near to the Birchley Park Service Station.

The road was shut for more than seven hours while initial investigations were carried out. A second boy was assessed at the scene by paramedics before being left in the care of his parents.

Pictures from the scene on Thursday night show a lorry carrying the logo of parcel delivery firm DPD behind police tape. The company has a base near to the scene.

A spokesman said: "We can confirm that a DPD vehicle was involved in a fatal accident at the Birchley Island roundabout in Oldbury and that we are currently helping the emergency services with their investigation.

"Our deepest sympathy goes out to the family of the young boy involved."

Detective sergeant Paul Hughes, from West Midlands Police's Collision Investigation Unit, said: "A young boy has tragically lost his life and we are trying to establish the circumstances. This is a very busy junction and we are keen to hear from anybody who was in the area at the time and may have witnessed the collision. We have specially-trained officers supporting the boy's family at this extremely difficult time."

Anyone with information should call police on 101.

Assessment before murder accused due to stand trial

A MAN accused of killing a mother and her teenage son at their family home in Stourbridge is to be assessed by doctors before he stands trial later this year.

Aaron Barley, aged 24, is accused of murdering Tracey Wilkinson, 50, and her 13-year-old son Pierce, who were both stabbed to death at their home on Ground Lane, Norton, in March.

Mrs Wilkinson's husband Peter, 47, was also stabbed but survived.

Barley appeared at Birmingham Crown Court last Thursday as details of his trial, set for October 3, were discussed.

Wearing a red T-shirt and jogging bottoms, in the dock Barley spoke only to confirm his name and had his head bowed during the ten-minute hearing.

Peter Wilkinson was at the hearing, sat in the public gallery alongside daughter Lydia, who was at university on the day her mother and brother died. Mr Wilkinson kept his gaze fixed on the accused for much of the court proceedings.

Mr Karim Khalil, prosecuting, explained that Barley would undergo a psychological assessment before the trial took place.

Barley has not as yet entered a plea to two counts of murder and was remanded in custody until the trial start date next month.

Teenager is locked up after store explosion

A SCHOOLBOY who caused an explosion in a Black Country supermarket just days after the Manchester Arena bombing has been locked up for four years and four months.

The 16-year-old, who cannot be named for legal reasons, caused 'pandemonium' at Blackheath Sainsbury's supermarket when he detonated the homemade explosive in a toilet.

Wolverhampton Crown Court heard the computer obsessed youth had made the bomb following instructions online, using everyday items bought from Poundland.

Sentencing him, Judge James Burbidge QC said the teenager was not a terrorist and did not hold any fanatical beliefs. He said: "You did not intentionally want to cause harm but it was such a highly reckless act that it was fortunate people were not caused harm. Nothing but a substantial custodial sentence is justified."

Blade

The teenager, who wore a bandana over the lower part of his face, strolled into the Halesowen Street supermarket at about noon on May 27. He placed the explosive in a cubicle and detonated it.

Prosecutor Mr Simon Hanns said a cleaner, warned away by the youth, saw he was grasping a blade. The boy, 15 at the time, removed his disguise in an attempt to blend in with panicked shoppers. The store was evacuated and armed police attended.

The teenager, who has Asperger syndrome and was said to come from a loving family, told police he had not intended to harm shoppers or staff. Defence barrister Mr Andrew Jackson said: "This whole dreadful episode appears to be motivated by combination of curiosity and, almost addiction, to computers."

More than £1,000 worth of damage was caused and the store lost £110,000 revenue.

The boy admitted making an explosive substance for unlawful purposes and possession of a blade in a public place.

Young dancers are living their dream

YOUNG dancers from the Black Country are currently living their dreams rehearsing for a professional ballet production.

The double bill of Nutcracker Suite and Ballet Études will be staged by English Youth Ballet at Wolverhampton Grand Theatre on September 29 and 30. The EYB will star international principal dancers Phillip Tunstall, Monica Tapiador, Samantha Camejo, Amy Drew and Oliver Spears, alongside local young dancers.

James Garrington, 14, from Netherton is training at the Debonair Dance Academy. He said: "I've danced with EYB before and I am looking forward to being with the professional dancers. I'd like to be a ballet dancer and to dance in the Birmingham Royal Ballet."

Dudley College student Emily O'Connor, who attends the Livingston Academy of Dance, said: "I am really excited about the performance experience at EYB."

Police arrest key suspect in Brierley Hill murder

A MURDER suspect wanted by police over the death of a father in a Brierley Hill street has been arrested in Birmingham after a nationwide hunt.

Niron Parker-Lee's arrest follows a 10-month manhunt, which featured an appeal on BBC Crimewatch and the offer of a £6,000 reward.

The 19-year-old was wanted in connection with the death of Mansoor Mahmood, who was stabbed to death in Brierley Hill High Street last October.

On Thursday night, Parker-Lee was arrested at an address in Northfield. He appeared before magistrates in Birmingham on Saturday and was charged with murder. He is being held in custody due to appear at Birmingham Crown Court this week.

Mr Mahmood, a 24-year-old factory worker, was knifed in the chest on October 15. He staggered into the Dixi Chicken takeaway, where staff called for an ambulance that took him to Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham.

But he died a short time later, leaving behind his wife Aisha and two children, Isa and Awaai.

The search for Parker-Lee was stepped up in June with the reward for information increased from £2,000 to £6,000.

The tripling in reward was thanks to Crimestoppers and money raised by the family.

Ferocious comic in town hall show

COMIC Ian Cognito will be bringing his controversial brand of stand-up to Stourbridge tonight (Thursday).

The comedian, who has been called the pitbull of comedy due to his ferocious reputation, will perform at the monthly Kum-n-a-avaloff Comedy Night on its return to Stourbridge Town Hall at 8pm.

Cognito has been compared to Lenny Bruce and Bill Hicks but has never crossed over to TV, in part at least due to his hard-hitting approach.

He will be joined at the town hall's Wollaston Studio by up-and-coming stand-up Morgan Rees, Pat Gallagher and MC Aaron Twitchen. Tickets, including curry and rice during the interval, cost £8. See www.boroughhalls.co.uk/kum-n-avaloff.html

New bosses plan to give market a boost

Dudley Market has been relaunched

THE new bosses of Dudley Market have vowed to restore it to its former glory by bringing in more stallholders and stage events to attract shoppers back.

The site was taken over by Tudor Markets in July and was officially reopened on Saturday.

Bosses say that plans are already in place for Christmas with all 72 stalls aiming to be filled and the addition of a new Asian market.

Natalie Mashhadi-Marshall, business developer for Tudor Markets, said: "We felt that maybe there had been some neglect and that the town centre had lost a bit of life, so now we want to bring it back.

"We want the market to be the way it used to be and get people away from Merry Hill and Birmingham and to choose Dudley instead.

"Since we have taken it over in July, we have had four previous traders come back to us and 48 stalls are now filled. There are 72 in total so we want to continue to attract traders to come to fill those. I am helping promote traders on social media too.

She continued: "We are planning some great events for Christmas, a Santa's grotto and the return of a Christmas tree.

"There has been an Asian market on a Wednesday for the last few weeks and that has been our busiest day. It's been fantastic and we want to continue to grow in that way."

Dudley Council strategic director Alan Lunt said: "Dudley Market is at the heart of Dudley town centre, which is why it was essential that we picked the strongest team to build on the work and investment delivered by Dudley Council."

NEWS IN BRIEF

Boy admits having machete at school

A TEENAGER has confessed to arming himself with a machete before going to school in Dudley.

The 13-year-old, who cannot be named for legal reasons, admitted possessing an offensive weapon on school premises in July.

He also confessed to having a large knife with him while in Price Street, in the Kates Hill area of Dudley, around a month after the school incident, Wolverhampton Magistrates' Court heard.

The youth is due to appear again at the same court for sentence on Wednesday, September 20.

Trust is looking at health links

THE relationship between physical and mental health will be discussed by experts as part of an annual meeting of the joint Dudley and Walsall's Mental Health Partnership NHS Trust.

The trust is inviting the public to the meeting on Friday, September 22, at The New Art Gallery in Walsall. The meeting is from 10am to 2.30pm.

A forum titled 'Healthy Mind, Healthy You' will look at the relationship between physical and mental health as well as workshops and therapies available to the public. For more details call (01384) 325015.

New classroom sought for school

A SCHOOL in Dudley has submitted plans for a new early years classroom.

Bosses at Jessons CE Primary School on School Street, Dudley, say the extension will provide much-needed teaching space. The early years department caters for children up to the age of five.

The new teaching area will also be used for childcare before and after the school day.

An application for planning consent for the development has been lodged with officers at Dudley Council for consideration soon.

Man, 50, has denied taking drugs to prison

A MAN from the Black Country has pleaded not guilty to taking drugs into a prison.

Carl Cina, aged 50, of Stourbridge Road, Brierley Hill, pleaded not guilty to one charge of possession of a class A drug with intent to supply and one charge of bringing a class A prohibited item into Featherstone prison on March 16.

He will appear at Stafford Crown Court for trial on November 2.

Spy car to tackle illegal parking outside schools

A 'SPY car' will patrol Dudley targeting drivers and recording evidence about poor parking near schools.

The vehicle will be out with the start of the new school term in a bid to keep children safe.

Councillor Karen Shakespeare, cabinet member for environmental services, explained: "Illegal parking outside schools puts the lives of children at risk."

The car, which was tested outside some schools in June and July, aims to catch motorists parking on yellow zigzag lines and they could be handed a £70 fine.

The project is costing £60,000 to set up and aims to be self-financing, meaning the cost of running the scheme will be funded by the income generated from fines.

The car-mounted camera will only start rolling when a car has driven over the zigzag lines, thanks to smart technology which detects the road markings. Council officers will sift through the video and anyone captured parking illegally will be sent penalty notices.

Punish

Government policy means the council can only use the CCTV to capture certain traffic offences, such as illegally parking on yellow zigzags and red routes or travelling in bus lanes. The scheme will not be able to punish motorists for illegally parking on double yellow lines, or on white zigzags next to zebra or pelican crossings.

Councillor Karen Shakespeare, cabinet member for environmental services, said: "The yellow zigzag lines are there for a reason – to ensure visibility so children can see and be seen clearly when they cross the road on their way to and from school. We take this extremely seriously."

"People who flout the law and ignore the zigzags will be fined. The new CCTV equipped car should help us catch those who are endangering children. The vehicle will be patrolling school sites on most days and I am sure it will be welcomed by the majority of law-abiding residents, who will be as frustrated as we are at illegal parking."

Out of this world but under the M5

Dudley amateur photographer Phil Ward's intriguing image of work on the Oldbury Viaduct on the M5

IT takes a little while for your eyes to adjust to this photograph, its strange appearance makes it look like the storage bay on a spaceship. But far from being extra-terrestrial, this was taken underneath the Oldbury Viaduct between junctions 1 and 2 of the M5.

The photograph was taken by Phil Wild, a 64-year-old amateur photographer from Lower Gornal.

Mr Wild uses a Canon EOS 650 camera and 70-200mm lens. His inspiration for the photograph was that he wanted to show the work at the viaduct, the subject of considerable concrete repair work which has led to delays on the busy route through the Black Country.

Mr Wild used favourable light and the reflection on the canal to capture this stunning image.

He said: "One of my favourite elements was the line of the canal leading you to the centre of the photograph."

Easy quiz aimed at terrible teams

A PUB in Brierley Hill is holding the UK's 'easiest pub quiz' for people put off quizzes by beer quaffing boffins.

The Corn Exchange Flaming Grill, on Amblecote Road, will be offering £750 to the winner.

General manager Beverley Morton said: "Everyone loves a pub quiz, but not everyone's general knowledge is up to scratch. We're offering these terrible teams the chance to redeem themselves."

Five teams will compete in the event and organisers are asking people to apply to take part ahead of the event on October 5. To enter, visit www.flaminggrillpubs.com/wwqt

Feeling the heat at chilli festival

THE Birmingham Chilli Festival is back, at Brindleyplace on Saturday, September 16. There will be the annual chilli themed market along with nerve-wracking challenges, physical activities and of course, plenty of spice.

This year, the festival will be raising the stakes with a 100ft forward-facing abseil from number 4 Brindleyplace to raise funds for one of their 2017 charity partners, Birmingham Children's Hospital Charity.

The festival will take place between 11am and 7pm in Central Square. To find out more visit www.brindleyplace.com website.

Warning to dog owners on car trip

MORE than half of dog owners in the West Midlands could be breaking the law while driving with their pet.

A total of 53 per cent of dog owners in the region are unaware their pet should be restrained in the vehicle.

The figures have been released as part of a campaign by the Dogs Trust called The Houndway Code. The results show that 44 per cent of owners do not restrain their dogs with a harness and a quarter admitted to finding them a distraction.

Discover the history of landmark church

FREE tours are being offered at a landmark church in Dudley on Saturday afternoon.

The tours will be held at St Thomas and St Luke's Church, also known as Top Church, at 1.30pm and again at 2.30pm and will last around half an hour. Visitors will be able to find out about the origins of the church and enjoy refreshments.

'Low life' thieves stealing from graves

CALLS have been made for security at Gornal Wood Crematorium because 'low-life' thieves have been stealing from graves.

The graves on land off Chase Road have been the subject of thefts of ornaments, vases, lights and other tributes left by relatives.

Dudley Council bosses say they are now looking at stepping up security in a bid to put a stop to the problem.

Councillor Ian Kettle, who is responsible for bereavement services in Dudley, said: "We have had a number of reports of thefts from graves at Gornal Wood Crematorium over the past few weeks."

Police

"We are in close communication with the police, and we are currently looking at our options with regards to increasing security at the site. We have also spoken to staff and stressed the need to remain extra vigilant."

"Such thefts cause great upset to people visiting their loved ones, and we would urge anyone with information to call the police."

John and Margaret Dacre are among families upset after items left at graves were stolen. Solar 'guardian angel' lights have been taken from the grave of their son John on three separate occasions.

John, a machinist from Dudley and died aged 55 in 2012. Mrs Dacre, aged 80, from Bilston, said: "I find it hard to understand why they did it. There is no value there. It upsets me. I get upset if I even speak John's name." Her husband John said: "It was a bit of a shock. People who steal from graves are low life."

Victim has kept knife threat man out of jail

A WOMAN, whose partner held a knife to her throat, has saved him from a jail sentence.

Lisa Shan asked for Steven Timmins to be freed when he appeared at Wolverhampton Crown Court via a video link from prison.

The couple had enjoyed a settled relationship for more than 20 years until he lost his job, said Mr Gareth Walters, prosecuting, who added: "He started to take drugs and his personality changed."

On July 4, Miss Shan returned home from work to find her 36-year-old partner sitting on the back step.

Timmins flew into a rage after Miss Shan told him to go back to his father's home because they could no longer live as they were. Timmins grabbed the her round the neck and started to 'strangle' her, before dragging her across the kitchen so he could reach a knife. The defendant pressed the blade to her throat and warned that he would kill her, the court heard.

Terrified

She was terrified but told him she loved him and managed to calm him down. Mr Walters said: "She genuinely thought that he was going to kill her and that he could have done so if she had not talked him down."

Timmins was arrested when police were alerted and had been in custody since then.

Miss Shan told the court: "I am prepared to give him another chance. He needs help for this drug problem. That is what changed him."

Timmins, of Wood Road, Lower Gornal, pleaded guilty to making threats to kill and assault and was given a 10-month jail sentence suspended for two years. He must do 80 hours unpaid work.

Judge James Burbidge QC told Timmins: "Your partner believes you have been punished enough. You owe her a large debt and should repay her by treating her with the upmost respect in future."

Talk on coins will be a nice change

THERE will be a talk on the history of English coins by Phil Griffiths at the Friends of Dudley Archives and Local History Service's at its next meeting, which is being held tonight (Thursday).

The group meets in the archives building in Tipton Road at 7.30pm. Admission for non-members is £2 and refreshments will be served.

Councillor in plea for action on danger road

By Clare Butler

URGENT safety measures are needed on a notorious route ahead of the opening of a new community centre, says a Dudley councillor.

Ward councillor Ken Finch insists action is needed on Priory Road in Dudley, where two people have died in the last year.

A new community centre is set to open within weeks opposite Aldi at the busy junction with Birmingham New Road, sparking fears more traffic and pedestrians could put safety at risk.

Councillor Finch, who represents the Castle and Priory ward, said that the road was getting 'more and more dangerous by the day'.

Speed-calming measures were called for earlier this year, but still nothing has been done.

Now a speed limit enforcement is being asked for because of the community centre opening.

"It is impossible to cross the road at peak times," said Councillor Finch. "We need to remember that there will be more traffic turning into the road and heading towards the community centre when it opens."

Trees

"It is getting more and more dangerous by the day. We need the trees pruned for more street light and we should put a speed limit in place and properly enforce it. We need highway bosses to come up with some ideas, and quickly.

"It seems that the road has just been left alone now but this is a problem that will not go away."

"Every week when we have our community surgeries we are asked by residents 'what are you doing about the road? We are in fear of another tragic accident."

Genie-us opportunity for talented Mia

Mia Richards will play Princess Jasmine in panto at Suffolk resort Lowestoft

AN actress who went to school in Lower Gornal is getting ready to hop onto a magic carpet after securing her first professional role in the pantomime Aladdin.

Mia Richards will appear alongside a cast including former Conservative MP Ann Widdecombe and singer Mark Read from boyband AI for the show's 32-performance run at Marina Theatre in Lowestoft on the Suffolk coast this December.

She says she is 'over the moon' to be playing Princess Jasmine. The 20-year-old, who has just completed her first year at Performance Preparation Academy (PPA) in Guildford, is no stranger to the amateur stage.

She started her musical theatre journey in productions such as Phantom of the Opera, Sweeney Todd and Les Misérables at El-lowes Hall Sports College in Lower Gornal.

After leaving school she went on to audition and study for a BTEC Level 3 Extended Diploma in Performing Arts at Birmingham Ormiston Academy, which saw her perform in shows such as Little Women and Spring Awakening.

Mia has also appeared on stage with West End stars Bonnie Langford and Samantha Spiro for an evening to celebrate the work of composer Stephen Sondheim.

It's time for reflection as festival of glass ends

ORGANISERS of an international glass festival in the Stourbridge Glass Quarter have hailed the event as a resounding success and thank people for their support.

Director Janine Christley said she was 'proud' of the local community, which helped make the seventh annual event a success.

The four-day International Festival of Glass, featuring the British Glass Biennale, featured work from leading artists in the medium from across the globe.

Ms Christley said: "It has been a huge success. I think people in Stourbridge can be really proud of what they have done. There has been a fantastic contribution here from local artists and visitors from around the country and abroad."

"Some people came to see specific things but have ended up marvelling at other things. The festival has been absolutely fantastic."

The festival ended with a glass auction in the courtyard of the Ruskin Glass Centre with 95 items up for sale.

Will Farmer, of Fieldings Auctioneers in Stourbridge, said a total of £8,927 was spent on items ranging from glass eyeballs to vases. The auction lasted for two hours. A glass piano valued at £500, called 'The Sound of Architecture' and made by Karlis Bougustovs, sold for £170. Carrie Fertig's glass lamb sold for £1,150.

Junction work is put back to 2018

WORK to improve safety and reduce congestion at a busy junction in Halesowen has been put back to next year.

The £3 million scheme to overhaul the junction at Dudley Road and Coombe Road in Halesowen started in January, but will not now be completed until 2018.

The final phase of the work was due start last week, and be finished during September, but Dudley Council has rescheduled the work until next year.

The project involves widening the pedestrian islands and increasing the lanes at the junction.

Work has finished on the entrances from Dudley Road, Furnace Hill and Halesowen Road, leaving the Coombs Road entrance for the final phase.

Safety on the agenda

PEOPLE will be able to hear about the work being done by the Community Safety Partnership on October 30 at Dudley Council House, from 6pm. Officials from Dudley Council, police and fire service will attend.

60,000 'missing out' on free bus travel

NEARLY 60,000 people aged over 60 in the West Midlands are missing out on free bus travel compared to other parts of the country, says a Black Country MP.

Research by Dudley North MP Ian Austin has revealed 59,239 local people aged between 60 and 64 have to wait until they are 65 for their free bus pass. But residents in Scotland, Wales and London can travel free on buses when they are 60.

Labour MP Mr Austin is now calling on West Midlands Mayor Andy Street to tackle what he says is a raw deal for people in the West Midlands.

He said public spending per person in the region lagged behind many other parts of the country.

"Over-60s in the Black Country have to wait much longer for free travel compared to those in London, Scotland or Wales," said Mr Austin.

"Many of them have worked hard all their lives and paid taxes which are used to subsidise higher levels of public spending in other parts of the country."

Services

"Bus passes would help the over-60s care for relatives, help look after the grandkids or get involved with local charities or community groups, as well as going out with friends."

"They would also help bus operators increase and improve services for us all."

"Andy Street promised to use the West Midlands' new devolved powers over transport to ensure 'buses and trains are as accessible as possible to older people, and protect the free bus pass'. We need a mayor who will stand up for local people and make sure they get the same level of services that people in other parts of the country take for granted."

The figures show there are 17,649 people aged between 60 and 64 in Dudley, 14,923 in Sandwell, 14,061 in Walsall, and 12,606 in Wolverhampton.

Mr Austin thinks free travel for those aged from 60-64 would be a boost for the region and that free passes would also encourage operators to provide more and better services. This in turn would encourage more people to use public transport, cut congestion and reduce pollution.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Georgian building for sale at auction

A GRADE II-listed former office building in the heart of Dudley town centre has gone on the market for £400,000 and will be sold at auction.

The heritage building, on the corner of Wolverhampton Street and Parsons Street, in Dudley, has been refurbished and converted into flats.

A buyer for the property will now be sought during an auction at the Moat House Hotel, Festival Park in Stoke on October 30.

The Georgian building, formerly used as solicitors offices, has been a prominent building in the town centre for decades and has been given a new lease of life as upmarket apartments.

Warning over tax con phone calls

POLICE are urging elderly residents to be careful after a spate of phone calls demanding money.

In the latest scam victims will receive a call from someone stating that they work for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC), saying tax is owed. The caller then claims that if a payment is not made immediately, the police will arrive to arrest them.

Police say the call is not legitimate and payment should not be made under any circumstance. Anyone who receives such a call should contact Action Fraud on 0300 1232040.

More than half a century of hits

A HITMAKER of the rock 'n' roll era who found success again in the 1970s, Neil Sedaka, has a concert at Symphony Hall, Birmingham, on Thursday, September 14.

The 78-year-old New Yorker's success began in 1959 with Oh! Carol. He had early 60s hits with Calendar Girl, Happy Birthday Sweet Sixteen and Breaking Up Is Hard To Do. Sedaka relaunched his career in the 1970s, enjoying hits with Laughter In The Rain, Love Will Keep Us Together and Solitaire. Tickets are £60 and £51. See thsh.co.uk or call 0121 780 3333.

Bus group expands into Manchester area

PUBLIC transport business Rotala has agreed to buy a bus and minibus services business from Go Goodwins (Coaches) for £692,500.

The firm, based in Tividale, has a fleet of 18 buses and property in Manchester, where it has service contracts. The acquisition potentially doubles Rotala's capacity, expanding into the Manchester area. Rotala, which owns Diamond Bus, also completed the purchase of Hansons (Wordsley) in July.

Bike route is confirmed despite traders' outcry

EXTENSIVE road closures will be in place next month near Dudley as the controversial Velo cycling festival route was confirmed.

Some 15,000 cyclists will tackle a 100-mile route through Birmingham, the Black Country, Staffordshire and Worcestershire on September 24.

Bosses have confirmed complete road closures will be in place along the route at different times as the cyclists make their way.

The planned closures were met with a backlash from traders who run businesses along the route, concerned about loss of trade on the day.

One couple's wedding is in the balance as access to Blakelands Country House in Bobbington will be restricted due to Velo Birmingham. Paul Morgan, who owns Blakelands, which hosts weddings most weekends, said: "It's chaos. I've got to respond to a girl who's wedding is in two weeks time and she still doesn't know whether her make-up artist or even her registrar will be able to navigate through this."

A meeting was held at Halfpenny Green Vineyards where nearly 40 traders and residents were angry about the closures. There were claims that farmers will block the route with tractors. Bobbington parish Councillor Roger Lewis has called for legal action and South Staffs MP Gavin Williamson wants the Velo to take place elsewhere.

Charity

But local authorities have held firm and insist the road closures will go ahead. They say the Velo is the biggest charity bike ride to ever pass through the region and will aim to raise more than £1 million for charity. The event will start and finish in Broad Street, Birmingham, passing through Sandwell, Dudley, Lower Penn, South Staffs and Worcestershire.

Councillor Karen Shakespeare, environment boss at Dudley Council, said: "This is the first race of its kind to come to the Midlands and is a fantastic opportunity for keen cyclists from across the country to see the best of our region while raising thousands of pounds for worthy charities."

Boxers fired up by sparring event

Dale Flute, of Tipton, and fireman Arron Lennon sparred at Priory Park Boxing Club in Dudley

AROUND 400 people took part in a 12-hour spar-a-thon to help raise funds for a community boxing club.

Bosses at Priory Park Boxing Club in Dudley held the inventive fundraiser during the build up to last month's big fight that saw Floyd Mayweather victorious over Conor McGregor.

The club's members were joined by friends and family, as well as a contingent of West Midlands firefighters, for the epic sparring session.

The fire service uses the gym for training and crew members were keen to get involved.

Club chairman Paul Gough said, "All of the money raised will go to the Priory Park charity. It will help us to invest more in kids and to keep them off the streets. Boxing gives them goals to work towards."

Two rings at the club were in use throughout the spar-a-thon. Donations are still accepted via justgiving.com/crowdfunding/priorysparathon

Excellent strategy to avoid core problems

GREAT news. Thanks to the excellent policies of local government, the Black Country's main town centres are doing exceptionally well. This is in no small part due to the excellent Black Country Core Strategy drawn up in 2011.

That's exactly what I thought when I walked through Dudley over the weekend, and surveyed the vast array of huge, glossy stores which have flocked to the town over the past six years. All those exciting payday lenders and charity shops.

We know our towns are thriving, because it says so in the consultation document for the Black Country Core Strategy. Yep, it's now time for the great and the good to ask for our vote of confidence, so they can give us more of the same.

Actually, it didn't say Dudley was thriving. Because if you read the fine print of the document – and the councils behind it know that most of us won't – the authors came up with a rather novel way of dealing with Dudley's decline. By redefining a town centre.

Of course, they redefined the Black Country years ago. And while I doubt whether many people feel any great affinity with a Black Country defined by 1970s local authority boundaries, at least we know what they mean.

However, the way that they redefined the term "town centre" is really quite special. Shortly before the publication of their vision, the signs for Brierley Hill town centre were quietly moved. Not just a few yards, but nearly a mile, so they are around the perimeter of the Merry Hill centre. The plan then redefined Merry Hill as being one of the "four strategic town centres for the Black Country", and quietly erased Dudley from the map. And that is the basis of the claim that our "main town centres" are thriving.

If you do want to have your say, consultation closes on Friday, although local councils also have their own definition of "consultation": "The exercise of telling people what they should be thinking, and then setting up a mechanism where only those who support it will reply."

Helpfully, they have decided to cut through the gobbledegook by providing a rather patronising questionnaire for "non-experts", which is filled with platitudes and loaded questions like, "Do you think people's health and wellbeing should be a key issue?" Dunno, can I have a few extra days to think about that?

It also asks: "Should we focus the growth of shopping, leisure and commercial development into our main town centres?" Depends how you define a town centre, doesn't it?

Taking Strike at new TV thriller's realism

DRIVERLESS Lorries to Hit British Roads (headline this week). Precisely. And what else will they hit?

I WAS tempted by one of the ice-cream sweets on offer at a restaurant because it was "garnished with a malted ball." A malted ball? What exotic, sophisticated and perfectly crafted amuse-bouche might this be? Turned out to be a Malteser.

TWO questions hang over the Beeb's latest private-eye drama, Strike. Firstly, would it ever have made it into production if the "Robert Galbraith" who wrote the original novels had not been revealed as one J K Rowling? I doubt it. Secondly, why on earth is everyone so keen to chat to the private detective, Cormoran Strike? Why would the investigating police officer even deign to meet Strike? Why would the murdered woman's driver blab? Why would the concierge at her flat take Strike on a guided tour of the exclusive apartments, including the residents' swimming pool – surely a sacking offence? Take it from me, as one who spent a career trying to get people to talk about awkward issues, it is never that easy.

I SUGGESTED that new laws are needed to make pedestrians behave safely. It turns out to be an ancient argument. Back in 1942, the Autocar Handbook commented on "jay walking" laws in force in parts of Europe. But in Britain "much opposition has come from those who hold the ancient rights of the walker to be inviolable." Nothing has changed. In the name of our ancient liberties we are free to walk – and free to die.

SOME scientists believe dementia could be avoided by adding lithium to our tap water. So let me be the first to alert you to the Great Lithium Conspiracy. It is, of course, a wicked plan concocted by the Illuminati, the shadowy figures who really control this planet, to introduce a sinister chemical into our water to take us over by controlling our minds and polluting our precious bodily fluids. It is part of their Master Plan which also involved kidnapping Elvis, assassinating John Lennon, faking the moon landings and murdering Princess Di (because she knew about the lithium). Do not touch a drop of lithium-laden water without first wrapping your head in aluminium foil. Pass it on before they get you, too.

I ADMIT that until this week I had never heard of Ed Skrein. I admit, too, that I had to read reports of his "whitewash" campaign several times before understanding what he was banging on about. In a nutshell, Mr Skrein, an actor, was expected to play Major Ben Daimo in a new film, Hellboy: Rise of the Blood Queen. Then he discovered that in the original Hellboy comics, Daimo (an entirely fictitious character) was of mixed-Asian heritage. After some protests from Asian activists, Skrein turned down the job, declaring: "I must do what I feel is right." For doing so, Skrein is a right-on hero. The Guardian hails his "inspiring protest against the invisibility of Asian people in the media." But the contradictions are endless. How, for example, does Skrein's decision fit in with the modern and thoroughly enlightened trend for colour-blind casting? If we can't have a white Major Daimo, how can we even discuss Idris Elba becoming the first black James Bond? As for the alleged "invisibility of Asian people in the media," what about Bollywood and martial-arts movies which are full of Indian and Chinese stars? Would Ed Skrein turn down the part of Hamlet on the grounds that he is not Danish? If not, why not?

If you need evidence that our civilisation is in decline, look no further than the bank-holiday queues for cut-price Prosecco at some Lidl branches which descended into ugliness when stocks ran out. "My weekend is ruined," howled one hysterical Twitter user facing the unspeakable horror of having to pay £5.79 for a bottle of bubbly instead of the £3.33 offer. Ruination is not what it used to be.

GEOFF Boycott, a 76-year-old Yorkshireman, will keep his cricket commentating job despite his ill-judged comment that the only way for him to get a knighthood would be to "black me face." Some accused him of racism for his remark but we should not ignore Boycott's own ethnicity. As 76-year-old Yorkshiremen go, he is a soft old woolly liberal.

TALKING POINT

Time for letting the world see real you

I MET up with a friend recently – one I have known for years and have spent many a pleasant evening over dinner catching up with all her latest family news. I was only too aware of all the problems she had had to face over the past weeks/months but did not feel that I should ask in case it upset her.

So I simply said: "How are things?" To which she replied with a smile on her face, "Just fine thanks" and we moved on. I knew that things were anything but fine but it's amazing how many people spend their lives doing that – painting a smile on their face and pretending everything is all right. And they do say that a problem shared and all that...

Maybe sometimes the problems are too personal and too difficult to talk about, and I understand that, but trying to stifle how they feel must surely make it harder to deal with and lead to even more stress.

We are all guilty to a certain extent. How many times at work have people greeted you with a cheery smile and said: "You Ok?" for you to reply "Yes thanks". Many times I am sure they really don't want to hear how you actually feel. It is just a greeting not an actual question. Perhaps if you turned round and said: "Well actually I feel sh**." they would run a mile. Stress is such a big problem these days and can lead to not eating properly and lack of sleep which add to health worries. In many cases depression is ignored, or seen as a stigma, and so the person is left to deal with it alone.

But these days, with the suicide rate in young people on the rise, there are initiatives that can help. And members of the Royal Family are leading the way.

Prince Harry recently revealed he "shut down all his emotions" for two decades after losing his mother Princess Diana. Harry admitted he sought therapy and took up boxing to combat frustration. Twenty years on and he finally found the strength to open up about the struggles the two brothers faced following their mother's death.

They, along with the Duchess of Cambridge, have teamed up for the Heads Together campaign, which works to dispel the stigma surrounding mental health.

Bringing people together in similar situations to talk about their problems means they do not feel that they have to face them alone. They can learn from people who may have been through similar difficulties how better to cope so that the smiles people see are not false and they don't feel so alone. Surely it's worth a try.

Worry about debt rather than Brexit

I WAKE up every day and thankfully find I'm not skewed on jagged rocks.

Okay, so Brexit has not yet been accomplished, and if the Remoaners and the traitorous band of EU addicts such as Blair have their way, it might never happen.

Nevertheless, legend had it that by now we would have all ended up at the bottom of a 90-foot deep cliff (remember the Fear Factor propaganda? 'We are sleep walking into falling off a cliff').

Keep an eye on children with asthma

THE school summer holidays have sadly come to an end. Children are at a much greater risk of having an asthma attack when they're back at school. Latest figures show children were 1.7 times more likely to be rushed to hospital following an asthma attack in September than in August.

Every 10 seconds someone has a potentially life-threatening asthma attack in the UK, so it's important for parents to spot the signs of an asthma attack early.

You should book an urgent appointment with the GP or asthma nurse if your child is: using their reliever inhaler (usually blue) more than three times a week; coughing or wheezing at night; feeling out of breath.

Parents who have concerns can speak to our nurses by calling 0300 222 5800 (Mon-Fri, 9am-5pm), or find more information by visiting www.asthma.org.uk/back-to-school

This hasn't happened. Maybe it was a bungee jump or maybe there never was a cliff.

The devaluation of the pound (it has been overvalued for years) may have added to inflation and made those continental holidays more expensive but exports are booming as a result and there's plenty to shout about in manufacturing.

Then, of course, we were told all those super-intelligent whiz kids from Europe would be queuing up to leave.

Well, they haven't and more are entering. German and Japanese companies who were also by now on their way out have in fact planned more investment in UK. Employment is at its highest level since Adam was a lad.

As far as I'm concerned, it's not the EU we have to fear for our long term future.

I have said on many occasions, I really worry about the level of personal debt we are piling up.

There will certainly be a reckoning unless this is checked and pronto.

Cycle race route should stay in Brum

THE Velo Birmingham Cycle Race, as far as I can make out, is described as a new venture to raise funds for 'local' charities. The charities being Alzheimer's Society, Cure Leukaemia, NSPCC and Queen Elizabeth Hospital Birmingham. Of these four, three are national charities.

My grumble: We'll start from the fact that there will be 'rolling road closures' for much of the day! Causing inconvenience, and upset to local inhabitants, and it's only now that people are being informed about them. Why, after objections from local and district councils did the people in Stafford decide to allow it? It's not as if there will be any economic 'bonus' for the people being put to inconvenience.

If Birmingham Velo want a 'Birmingham' race held it within their city.

Give me a break, officer

MANY years ago, I was pulled over by a young bobby at a bike shop in Dudley for only having one brake lever on the handle bars of my fixed wheel bike. He threatened to give me a summons if he saw me riding the bike.

I was so incensed that I went straight round to the library to look at the relevant regulations. The final ruling statement was 'bikes with a fixed rear wheel must have a brake on the front wheel operated by a lever on the handle bars'!

I rode a fixed wheel road bike for years, with no problems.

If young riders of today want to try riding fixed, they should do so during the winter months, because riders of such bikes have more control. Another thing: I learned to pedal, and frequently I was able to hold my own with riders of the day, riding back towards Wombourne after watching races up the Hermitage.

Summer tea party enjoyed by all Back indoors for history society

CHAIRMAN Chris Holton presided over the August 8 meeting at Grange Court, Stourbridge. She welcomed 32 members and guests.

The evening saw all members and guests enjoy a summer tea party prepared and served by committee members and their helpers.

Speaker Jacqueline Hill talked about a children's charity she is connected with. It relies on sponsorship and donations to help to take 30 to 40 underprivileged children, aged 12-to-18, on a week's holiday to Bideford in Devon. A vote of thanks was given.

The normal monthly raffle was then drawn with several prizes.

THE society enjoyed a most successful summer of outdoor meetings, which included a tour of the WWI training grounds on Cannock Chase, Dudley canal through the heart of the Black Country, and the railway and canal within the area of Withymoor.

Ambleside History

The society celebrated the 200th year of the birth of John Corbett participating in picnic celebrations at Chateau, Impney, and rounded off summer at the International Festival of Glass. The society will resume monthly indoor meetings on September 13 at 7.30pm, in the Lehr Theatre at the Ruskin Glasshouse Centre, Wollaston Road, Ambleside, with an illustrated talk on Himley Hall by Alan Peace. See our Facebook site for details.

A garden from scratch is topic of owner's talk

Cleent Gardening Club

MEMBERS enjoyed two evening garden visits, firstly, to Langdale at Offenham near Evesham, whose owner Adrian James gave a talk at the next meeting.

His talk on "A garden from scratch" was the story behind the garden visited. Children having flown the nest, Adrian and his wife decided to downsize from their large house in Kidderminster (with a small garden) and moved to a bungalow in Offenham with a large garden laid to roughly mown grass.

Adrian's garden in Kidderminster had been opened under the "Yellow Book" scheme and his target was to create a new garden suitable for opening under this scheme in under four years! They moved in to their new home in 2009 and the target, successfully achieved, was to open to the public in 2013.

Adrian gave an entertaining talk embellished with many excellent photographs as one of his sidelines is producing photographs professionally for gardening magazines.

After proposing a vote of thanks, the chairman and members enjoyed their usual coffee, tea and biscuits following which he announced the results of the monthly competitions and drew the raffle.

The second visit was to New House Farm at Elmbridge near Droitwich. Both were enjoyed, as well as the obligatory coffee and cakes.

Meetings are held at Cleent Village Hall on the fourth Friday each month.

Author books in to entertain members

New member Margaret Holloway, Michael Taylor signing books and registrar Jan Burrows

Dudley South Ladies Luncheon Club

A RECORD attendance of 40 members and one visitor enjoyed an excellent three-course lunch, before chairman Pauline Handley introduced speaker Michael Taylor, a local author who set his novels in areas around Dudley.

He described the chaos and havoc inflicted by the ex-convict navvies who built the railways and learned of the terrible scenes in Brierley Hill in 1858 when 42 rail way coaches travelling from Worcester to Wolverhampton crashed, killing many and injuring more than 100.

Mr Taylor mainly pens romantic novels for women and now writes under the name of Nancy Carson. Several members purchased signed copies of his books at a reduced price.

On August 11, there was a coffee morning at the home of Ann and Mike Rogers. Strawberries and cream scones were served and also there was a very successful bring and buy stall and raffle, boosting funds for charities.

Sue Langley talk about her Great Aussie Adventure on October 13 and Mike Wood MP will inform members about Parliamentary and Current Affairs on November 10.

Stories from a trip across the Andes – on horseback

West Mids Federation

CHAIRMAN Margaret Tew welcomed 123 guild members and guests, including the Federation President Christine Yorke to the West Midlands Federation of Townswomen's annual luncheon at the Copthorne Hotel, Merry Hill.

After grace, members enjoyed a three-course meal followed by tea/coffee and mints. Jean Williams then proposed the loyal toast to Her Majesty the Queen and Betty Davies gave the toast to all the guilds within the Federation. Maureen Golborne gave the response on behalf of all guilds.

Following a short break Chairman Margaret Tew introduced the speaker for the afternoon, Sue Hickman who gave a very interesting talk about crossing the Andes on horseback.

She told of the beautiful sights that she visited and the interesting people that she met and held everyone's attention with all the wonderful slides that were shown during the talk.

Sue was given a vote of thanks by Margaret Tew and was presented with a bouquet.

The raffle was drawn and three lucky winners received the prizes. There was also a draw for the plants that decorated each table. The luncheon was a huge success and enjoyed by all.

The next event being held by West Midlands Federation will be the Autumn Celebrations which is being held in Wollaston Village Hall on October 11. Members are advised to order their tickets as the event is being well supported.

Chloe's charity steps in memory of father

Chloe in fundraiser in memory of her father

A DANCER has organised an evening of song and dance to raise money for a cancer charity in memory of her father who died from the disease.

Chloe Evans, aged 20 from Sedgley, has organised the event for Bowel Cancer UK, a charity she has supported since losing her father to bowel cancer in 2013, at the age of 42. The Worcester University-student has raised £3,000 to date. The event will take place at Colton Hills Community School in Wolverhampton on October 21.

Chloe said: "The evening is to remember my dad, who died from bowel cancer four years ago. The day after would have been his 46th birthday. I like to organise fundraising events in his memory on special dates like this one to turn what could be a sad day into a celebration."

"I have raised over £3,300 for Bowel Cancer UK in memory of my Dad in nine months, and it would be amazing to reach £4,000 by the end of the year."

Chloe's dance group, Ignite Dance Company will be performing at the fundraising event.

Tributes to victim of crash on main road

TRIBUTES have been paid to a man who was killed in a crash on the A449 between Wolverhampton and Wombourne.

Iana Dumitru has been described as 'a nice guy who had a private life' by those who knew him. He died in a crash on August 27 that also left a five-month-old baby with serious injuries.

The red Peugeot 206 overturned on the Stourbridge Road, Penn, just after 6.30pm. Horrified passers-by rushed to try to help on Sunday with one attempting CPR on the man while another picked up the crying baby from a grass verge.

Friends

Shop worker Mr Dumitru, 51, who was from Bucharest, Romania, had been spending the evening out with friends when the accident took place.

A boy aged 16 was questioned by police on suspicion of causing death by dangerous driving.

Other occupants of the vehicle, a five-month-old baby, its 23-year-old mother and a 49-year-old woman, were all taken to hospital. A family member, also from Bucharest, said: "He was my mother's boyfriend."

"I saw something about an accident on social media and then my mother got in touch to say what had happened. She said they had been on a trip out on the evening to a lake nearby."

"He had been staying with family friends while working in Wolverhampton in retail. He had gone to Wolverhampton for a something better and to be on a one-year work contract."

"He was a nice guy, someone who was okay to speak too. He didn't have any other family than my mother. We are in shock from this tragedy."

GET SAVING ON ENERGY BILLS IN PREPARATION FOR WINTER WITH DUDLEY'S BIG SWITCH

With autumn soon taking its hold Dudley Borough residents are being encouraged to get saving on their energy bills before winter bites.

Dudley Council is urging people to sign up to its latest Big Switch energy switching scheme. The scheme offers residents market leading deals on energy which are not available elsewhere. Residents who have registered at previous auctions have saved up to £300 on their home energy bills, so it's well worth getting registered.

The Big Switch brings people together to reduce their energy bills by switching their energy suppliers collectively. The more people who register the better the deals on offer, as it is based upon the bulk buying concept.

The deals offered by the Big Switch are not available elsewhere, and it has been recently reported that up to sixty percent of top energy deals are not available on the standard switching sites. To get the best deal it is well worth registering.

In recent month's five of the 'Big six' energy providers have announced price hikes for people on standard variable rate tariffs, with British Gas announcing a 12.5 percent rise in its electricity prices. The majority of people are on standard variable tariffs (sixty-six percent according to Ofgem) and can potentially therefore make significant savings by signing up to switch.

Since the scheme began in June 2013 the collective savings made by borough residents has topped half a million pounds.

The latest Big Switch has launched this week. To take advantage of the cut price rates offered, people are encouraged to call 0300 555 2345 to register, or you can register online at www.dudley.gov.uk/bigswitch. People will need to have their current tariff details and fuel usage (shown in the most recent bill) to hand.

The scheme is open to all householders, including people living in rented accommodation, those with a prepayment meter and people with a fuel debt of up to £500 or less.

Cllr Les Jones, cabinet member for housing, said:

"Our Big Switch energy auctions have proved extremely popular over the last few years with thousands signing up to take part and saving hundreds of pounds on their home energy bills. The deals offered through the scheme are market leading, so people will be getting real value for money. With winter on its way now is the ideal time to be registering to save, as well as keeping warm and well at home."

To find out more call Dudley Council Plus on 0300 555 2345 or visit www.dudley.gov.uk/bigswitch.

Save cash on your energy bills

Sign up to Dudley's Big Switch and we will get energy companies to compete to win you as a customer by offering you the very best market leading deals, not available elsewhere.

At previous Big Switches people have saved up to £300 on their gas and electricity bills.

Register by 9 Oct 2017

Simply call Dudley Council Plus on 0300 555 2345

Masters of their universe

THE wait to find out who are the 100 most talented and skilled Masters from the Black Country is over – at least for some.

Creative Black Country, which set out to identify the 100 Masters, has begun to release the names of those who made the list. Here we feature the first contingent from Dudley nominated by the people of the Black Country.

The year-long regional campaign is aimed at inspiring and offering people a fresh perspective about the strengths, skills, talent and expertise surfacing from their locality and community. Hundreds of nominations were submitted for the June 30 deadline and now the 100 Masters list has been compiled.

Each day until November a Master is being released via the 100 Masters website – with all 100 to feature in the Express & Star. The public will get the chance to get up close to some of the Masters when they appear at a special Expo on November 25 at Starworks in Wolverhampton.

A Master is described as ‘a noteworthy person who has forged their own path and displayed outstanding ability that has influenced others.

Project Coordinator, Liam Smyth, from Arts Council England funded group Creative Black Country said: “The Black Country was forged at the hands of men and women from all walks of life who honed their skills to the highest levels. The final 100 Masters showcase the wealth of talent that our area has to offer.”

Those nominated from Dudley include: Artist Felicity Hammond, former Stourbridge College student has been a finalist and nominee for numerous top awards including Saatchi New Sensations in 2014; fashion designer Elizabeth Isley, put her own fashion spin on leather jackets bought in charity shops, caught the eye of celebrities including Kim Kardashian and now has studio in Birmingham.

Artist Dean Melbourne, his work has been accepted for the Royal Academy Summer Exhibition three times; sculptor Luke Perry, whose metal work is seen at locations across the Black Country; brewer Scott Povey, from Blackheath’s Fixed Wheel Brewery; digital designer Daniel Westwood, from Halesowen, who has worked with leading ad agencies.

Sing-along will help people with dementia

THE Salvation Army is launching sing-along sessions in a bid to help people who have dementia.

The Sedgley group is one of the first Salvation Army churches to host a Singing By Heart group, which will be held on the final Monday in each month.

Those living with dementia can go along with their carers for a selection of popular Christian and secular songs.

The army is also holding a free hour-long dementia awareness session on Tuesday to give people an idea about living with the illness. The sing-along is the brainchild of The Salvation Army’s older people’s ministries and its music and creative arts teams.

Margaret Hollis, a local leader, said: “Singing really helps to make both a spiritual and mind connection and people really enjoy their time together.

“We are committed to growing awareness about dementia in Sedgley. We want to welcome people into our future activities within the community.”

Singing by Heart launches on September 25 at All Saints Church Hall, Ladies Walk in Sedgley. It will take place at the rear of the hall, opposite the clinic and library. See www.dementiafriends.org.uk for further information.

Football star will give property tips

FORMER England and Liverpool striker Robbie Fowler will be giving tips on building a property empire with a talk in Dudley.

The ex-Premier League star has built up a multimillion pound housing portfolio since retiring from the beautiful game.

A free workshop will take place at the Copthorne Hotel Merry Hill at Brierley Hill on September 14. He will give tips to those looking to invest and get into the market.

Further information can be found on the Property Academy website at www.property-academy.com

And they're off! The crowd of runners get going on the gruelling 26.2 mile route that winds around the city streets

Blood, sweat and tears – but all winners in the end

IT WAS a day of heroes as the 20th Wolverhampton Marathon took place and packed the city.

Training partners Mark Ince and Daniel Robinson took the honours in the main Carver Wolverhampton Marathon. But they weren't the only ones celebrating as almost 2,000 people took part in either the marathon, half marathon, 10k run, 20k bike ride or other events.

From elite athletes to those taking on their first big run or bike there was blood, sweat, tears and plenty of smiles. As usual it was a colourful spectacle with many dressing costumes for the occasion including Craig Smallman and Connor Hardy, from Wolverhampton, who came as Batman and Robin.

Stuart Bailey, a 45-year-old store manager, from Bilbrook, donned a six kilo Peppa Pig outfit to raise money for New Cross Hospital in the half marathon as a thank you for the treatment his grandson George received there. He said afterwards: "I didn't know it was raining until I took the head off at the finish."

He has raised over £30,000 for charities over the last seven years in 40 events of different distances wearing a variety of guises ranging from the Jolly Green Giant and yellow chicken, through to Morticia Addams and Father Christmas – the last of which saw the 6ft 4ins tall store manager lose half a stone during this year's London Marathon.

Andy Newman, a 46-year-old carpenter and father-of-three from Fordhouses, launched the Wolverhampton Bobsled Team six years ago. Since then they have got through four sledges while competing in 30 different events, raising almost £30,000 for good causes.

This year the beneficiary was the Teenage Cancer Trust for whom inspirational teenager Stephen Sutton raised millions before his death. His mother Jane was among the four strong team that carried the 15ft long bobsled in the Banks's10k run.

Bride

Bride-to-be Abi Reynolds turned the half marathon into a 'hen run.' The 42-year-old finance assistant from Perton – who ties the knot in just days – ran with her bridesmaid Rhona Woodward and workmate Danni

Father-of-one Trev Foster, a 46-year-old steel stockholder from Bishops Wood, ran the half marathon for the eighth time, starting in 2008 when he was dressed as an Air Ambulance. Since then he has collected around £20,000 for good causes, in recent years accompanied by his son Josh, 22. This time they dressed as American Marines in memory of a close family friend who had been a Marine and died earlier this year. The pair raised money for Compton Hospice, where he died.

Trev said: "If you take part in shorts and vest people clap you but if you are dressed like a lunatic they cheer you and that keeps you going. I don't care about the time. It is about raising money for charity."

Getting plenty of cheers as they ran – Trev Foster and son Josh

Batman and Robin later unmasked as Craig Smallman and Connor Hardy

Call for safety measures after cars hit wall on corner

RESIDENTS have called for action at an 'accident blackspot' after two crashes in less than a week. A 200-year-old wall has been knocked down following the latest of the incidents in Gospel End Street, Sedgley.

Concerned residents say that after a week in which two cars crashed and ploughed into the wall on the bend, then a van crashed at the same spot.

Following that incident was charged with drink-driving. Karl Plant, aged 45 of Pine Green, Dudley will appear at Dudley Magistrates court on September 13.

Following the crashes, orange barriers have been put in place in the area surrounding the wall, which has half tumbled over.

Worried

A resident, who did not want to be named, said: "We are really worried that these cars come around the corner and can lose control if they take it too sharply. The wall that they crash into is up to 200 years old and has partly fell over and been reduced to rubble.

"It is a miracle that people don't get hurt."

"This is an issue that we really want highlighting. We need to sort this out and put some measures in place to stop anything fatal happening."

Further around the bend, at the road's junction with Vicar Street, safety improvements are set to get underway later this year.

Plans are in the pipeline to reconstruct Gospel End Street in Sedgley to highlight give-way signs and markings. It can prove a tricky section for motorists to navigate, due to the sharpness of the bend and location of the road being on a hillside.

A KEEPER at Dudley Zoo has completed his training to become the latest fully-qualified member of staff at the Castle Hill attraction.

Sam Grove has successfully passed a two-year Diploma in the Management of Zoo and Aquarium Animals course.

The 25 year-old said: "I'm delighted, it's been hard work so it's a relief to have finished."

The DMZAA is run in partnership with the British and Irish Association of Zoos and Aquariums and Sparsholt College in Hampshire. It is designed for people already working in the zoo community.

Curator Richard Brown, said: "This qualification is the industry standard for training zoo keepers and we're keen for all DZG keeping staff to complete it."

Teenagers hip hop to the top with Oz groove

TALENTED teenagers from Sandwell and Wolverhampton took on a summer experience with a difference as they joined a professional dance company to put on a hip hop dance show at major venues in the West Midlands.

Pupils from St Matthias School in Wolverhampton have been hosting the three-week residency with London-based ZooNation Dance company to stage a unique take of The Wizard of Oz.

Groove On Down the Road was staged last weekend in the Arena Theatre in Wolverhampton and from September 27 to 29 is being performed at the Patrick Centre at Birmingham Hippodrome.

The show features 25 teenagers from St Matthias, Coppice Performing Arts, Our Lady and St Chad's schools in Wolverhampton and the Shirelands Academy in Sandwell.

St Matthias has raised more than £25,000 to give the students the opportunity to work alongside some of the leading hip hop dancers in the country.

Engaging

Rhimes Lecointe, who is directing the show, is a long-standing member of the ZooNation team and runs her own dance company, Boadicea, in London.

She said: "We love bringing our work to new audiences and engaging with young people; we have been able to select a really talented and enthusiastic cast and the show is a great introduction to our style of hip hop theatre."

Mya Wright, aged 15, from Our Lady and St Chad's School, is playing Dorothy in the show. She said: "Having the opportunity to play the main part has given me the confidence to believe I can do anything in the future; this is such a cool project."

Councillor Claire Darke, Wolverhampton's cabinet member for education, said: "It is fantastic to see our young people given this incredible opportunity."

The show is staged 7.45pm nightly, see birminghamhippodrome.com for tickets.

No California dreamin' for these troops

Queen's Dragoon Guards driving Jackal trucks on patrol in the California desert. Courtesy of @BritishArmy

FROM their base in the Black Country to the scorching heat of the Californian deserts, it's been quite a change of scene for Dudley's Army reservists, who have been put through their paces in the Mojave Desert.

Members of B Squadron, The Royal Yeomanry – based at Vicar Street in Dudley – have been supporting their paired regiment, the senior light cavalry British Army regiment 1st The Queen's Dragoon Guards.

The squadron conquered exercise Diamond Back in up to 36°C (96.8°F) heat.

Deployed from RAF Brize Norton in August to the United States National Training Centre in South East California, they joined the US Army for training in testing terrains.

Private Tasha Cox, from Kinver, who has been in the Army Reserve for less than 18 months, said: "I get to train alongside regular medics and gain valuable experience. The learning curve has been big but so much fun. "They (B Squadron) have been really supportive in getting me out here."

The centre, Fort Irwin, is where the USA Armoured Brigades train before every deployment and extends to the size of all the military bases in the UK combined. The Brits have been working hard learning how to camouflage themselves to blend into the rocky landscape.

The iconic Blood Brothers returns in April

Katie Markham will bring The Adele Songbook to life

Beautiful - The Carole King Musical comes to the Grand in June

Grand! Hello to Adele show

TICKETS for a host of top-drawer shows are now on sale – ranging from classics of the stage to twists on modern classics.

Wolverhampton's Grand Theatre has lined up a variety of shows, including the return of Willy Russell's Blood Brothers.

This will take over the theatre for a six-evening stint next April. The classic drama is one of a number of new shows announced, including a production from Black Country comedy group The Fizzogs, who will be bringing Freezin', their take on Disney classic Frozen, to life.

The Fizzogs, who shot to fame in 2014 after a video of their dancing grannies' routine went viral, will perform at the Grand on November 16, the night after Katie Markham takes the songs of Adele to the city as part of the Someone Like You – The Adele Songbook show.

Katie was hand-picked by Adele herself on Graham Norton's BBC Adele Special in 2015 to take on the role of the multi-million-selling singer for a stage production and has not looked back since.

She will be performing hits from the record-breaking albums 19, 21 and 25 on November 16. Tickets are on sale for a special Afternoon with Christopher Biggins show, hosted by BBC Midlands Today's Nick Owen, taking place on October 27.

Fans will be able to join in with a talk on the career of the 68-year-old actor, who has appeared in programmes including Porridge, Some Mothers Do 'Ave 'Em and Surprise Surprise in what is a unique show for the theatre.

Wowed

Shows on sale for next year, include an evening with Buddy Holly and The Cricketers with The Rock and Roll Orchestra. The show has wowed audiences across the globe from Cardiff to California in recent years and will return to Wolverhampton on March 7.

After surpassing 10,000 shows a long time ago, Blood Brothers is still going strong and the show, dubbed the Standing Ovation Musical for its ability to invariably get crowds on their feet at the end of the evening returns, to the city on April 16, running through to April 21.

Bringing the new series of shows to a close is Beautiful – The Carole King Musical, which tells the inspiring true story of King's remarkable rise to stardom.

It goes from her being part of a hit songwriting team with her husband Gerry Goffin, to her relationship with fellow writers and best friends Cynthia Weil and Barry Mann, to becoming one of the most successful solo acts in pop music history. Beautiful will be at Wolverhampton Grand from June 12 to 16.

Tickets can be bought by calling 01902 429212, in person at the box office or online at grandtheatre.co.uk.

Become a Friend of the Grand by calling the box office or online at grandtheatre.co.uk/support.

Next month marks one year since the Grand raised the curtain on improvements made during a £1.1 million revamp of the historic theatre.

It saw the ground level of the theatre completely redesigned to be more convenient for people visiting the box office for tickets and information.

The merchandise and confectionery kiosk were also replaced by a bar during the work, which bosses said added a touch of razzmatazz to the site and was inspired by 1920s theatres.

£1m ice age attraction to hit safari park

WEST Midland Safari Park will turn back the clock to the ice age with a new £1 million attraction to open next year.

Highlights of the interactive experience will include a 26ft high 'volcano', an ice cave and life-sized animal exhibits.

They will form part of an open-air walk designed to show visitors what life was like when saber-toothed tigers and woolly mammoths roamed the earth.

Animaltronics will be used to bring realistic ice age creatures to life – some of which will be more than 12ft tall. It follows the success of the Land of the Living Dinosaurs, which cost £2.5 million and opened two years ago.

Bosses want the new attraction, which could be open next summer, to be educational but they say it has also been designed to capture the imagination of visitors by providing an 'immersive experience'.

An application for planning permission for the project has now been submitted to Wyre Forest District Council with a decision due within the next few months.

Although the ice age attraction will be situated close to the dinosaur exhibit, it will fill unused space near the sea lion arena and Treetops Pavilion.

Mayor's walk for Alzheimer's Society

THE Mayor of Dudley, Councillor Dave Tyler, has organised a Memory Walk to support Dudley Alzheimer's Society, one of three charities he has chosen to help during his year in office.

The sponsored walk at Himley Hall on October 8 at 11am is for all ages and abilities.

Nuisance drivers are 'putting lives at risk'

A FED-UP Dudley resident says he is constantly disturbed by motorists who mistakenly drive up the path outside his home thinking that it is the highway.

David Pugh, aged 68, of Ash Grove, Dudley, says bollards are needed at the point where the road turns into a pathway.

The path, which is approximately six feet wide and 200 yards long, but he is aware of motorists speeding up it during the early hours of the morning, unaware that the road ends at the path.

Dangerous

Mr Pugh said: "It's dangerous, there are elderly people and children using that as a short-cut to go to the town. It only takes it to happen once, particularly if it's dark or if it's raining, it only takes it to happen once. They are putting lives at risk, children's live at risk."

Motorists were stopped from using the through-road a little over 25 years ago, he said, but many still driver, sometimes at speed, thinking they have a through-route but then have to turn around or reverse.

Mr Pugh, who moved to Ash Grove 12 months ago, has written to the council calling for it to place bollards at the entrance of the pathway.

"I have got Parkinson's and I have been diabetic for 34 years, I can't seem to rest with it," he said. In a response from Dudley Council, Councillor Karen Shakespeare, cabinet member for environmental services, said: "We have already visited Mr Pugh to look at the issues he raised and have agreed to install an extra bollard. However, we have now had further feedback from local residents and the proposed location may have access problems, it may impact access for one of the residents."

"Further discussions are taking place with the residents and as soon as we get the final location agreed then the bollard should be in within about a week."

David Pugh, of Ash Grove, Dudley, is fed up with motorists driving up the pathway outside his home

Ambulance crews lose hundreds of hours at A&E

AMBULANCES were kept waiting for more than 1,000 hours before they could drop off patients in just one month at hospitals in the Black Country and Staffordshire.

Patients were forced to wait up to two hours in ambulances and corridors before being taken into hospital care, according to new figures.

At Russells Hall Hospital in Dudley, paramedics wasted 338 hours waiting to hand-over patients in June. One patient had to wait 1 hour 56 minutes.

At New Cross Hospital in Wolverhampton the paramedics were forced to waste 262 hours in the same month, at Walsall Manor 172 hours, Sandwell 121 hours and at Royal Stoke University Hospital and County Hospital in Stafford 172 hours. The time wasted is calculated by adding the total number of waiting hours AFTER the targeted 15 minute handover period.

Penalties

Hospital trusts risk financial penalties for delaying ambulance staff - £200 per patient waiting between 30 and 60 minutes, £1,000 per patient waiting more than an hour.

West Midlands Ambulance Service deploys hospital ambulance liaison officers to work with bed managers to help with the handover process.

A spokesman said: "A&E departments are working hard to provide the highest standards of care. Only

Heater caused fatal fire

A FLAT fire in Tipton which claimed the life of a man was started accidentally and involved a portable heater, it has been revealed.

On Sunday morning fire crews were called to the blaze at Jay's Avenue, in Dudley Port, where a man aged in his 50s died. Police were called to the scene at around 6.50am.

Firefighters from Tipton and West Bromwich attended the blaze and managed to prevent the fire spreading to neighbouring homes.

An investigation is now under way.

Shocking figures as 226 die while waiting for organ transplant

MORE than 200 people in Black Country and Staffordshire have died while waiting for an organ transplant in the last decade.

The shocking figure was revealed today by NHS Blood and Transplant in a desperate bid to get more donors.

A total of 119 of those who died lived in Walsall, Wolverhampton, Dudley and Sandwell while 107 were from Staffordshire. Twenty nine died in Shropshire and the total number of lives lost in the West Midlands over the same period was 302.

Twenty five of the deaths were in Walsall, 35 in Wolverhampton, 24 in Dudley and 35 in Sandwell.

Now 129 more people face a similar risk while waiting for a donor in the Black Country and a further 105 are in the same situation in Staffordshire.

NHS bosses reckon hundreds of lifesaving transplants are being missed every year because families had not been made aware of what their relatives wishes were. It is believed that many people think it 'safer' to say no to a donation request on behalf of another person when they really do not know what the deceased's views were.

Anthony Clarkson, assistant director of organ donation and transplantation, said: "It is a tragedy that people are dying unnecessarily waiting for transplants."

Police blunders that led to 24 data breaches in year

LOSS of technology, misuse of systems and missing encrypted USB devices – those were among 24 data breaches by officers at West Midlands Police in one year.

The breaches over 2016 also included access requests to incorrect addresses and inappropriate disclosure. The latter was the most common incident within the force with seven cases. It can include things like sending information to the wrong person or even putting inappropriate things on social media.

West Midlands Police have not provided any specifics on the circumstances surrounding their incidents.

There were five cases of 'loss of technology', four of missing USB sticks, three of using insecure emails and three of 'subject access requests' – people requesting what information is held about themselves – which were sent to the wrong address.

Activists

The other incidents included one breach of 'inaccurate information' and another of 'misuse of systems', of which no other details have been released at this stage.

Civil liberties group Big Brother Watch has said more needs to be done to tackle the number of data breaches. The group says it works 'to ensure that those who fail to respect our privacy, undermine our online security, or fail to protect our personal data, are held to account'.

Last year the privacy activists shone the spotlight on police forces by compiling the number of data breaches between 2011 and 2015, revealing West Midlands Police had committed more than double the number of any other in the period (488).

Visitors will be able to ask questions following the talk and have their books signed by Natalie.

Tickets cost £2. All proceeds will go to the Friends of Kingswinford and Wordsley libraries. Call (01384) 812740 for details about availability.

Author brings ancient tales to the library

AN acclaimed author is giving a talk at Kingswinford Library tonight (Thursday).

Natalie Haynes will be at the library in Market Street to speak about her latest novel, The Children of Jocasta, at 7pm. Refreshments from 6.30pm.

Birmingham-born Natalie is a regular contributor to Radio 4, as well as appearing as a team captain on three seasons of Wordaholics.

The Children of Jocasta is the author's second novel. It follows The Amber Fury and The Ancient Guide to Modern Life.

Visitors will be able to ask questions following the talk and have their books signed by Natalie.

Tickets cost £2. All proceeds will go to the Friends of Kingswinford and Wordsley libraries. Call (01384) 812740 for details about availability.

Steaming back in time at 1940s event

Anthony Broadhead of Wolverhampton, Glenn Taylor of Wombourne and Wayne from Bearwood

THE outcome of the Second World War hung in the balance over the weekend as dozens of people flocked to a special event recreating the 1940s.

Telford Steam Railway welcomed visitors from Wolverhampton, Wombourne, Brewood and Kingswinford as the Allies joined forces to beat the Germans.

The event took visitors back in time and gave them a glimpse of the era, encompassing the Spring Village, Lawley and Horsehay & Dawley areas. Attractions included military re-enactments, entertainment from vintage-inspired The Blue Bird Belles, with American Jeeps on display and the chance for visitors to be transformed with hairstyles from 70 years ago.

The Bluebird Belles are a professional 1940s and vintage vocal harmony trio. The group, inspired by The Andrews Sisters and specialising in retro sounds from the 1920s right up to the present day, performed a variety of classic hits to the crowds.

An array of stalls sold vintage-style items. People sampled 40s culinary favourites, including Spam fritters, trench stew and other wartime foods.

1.8m votes 'wasted' in the election

ALMOST two million votes in the West Midlands failed to count towards the General Election result in June, according to new analysis from the Electoral Reform Society.

The campaign group said 1,845,299 votes in the region did not go towards electing the winner – 67 per cent of the overall vote.

Darren Hughes, newly-appointed Chief Executive of the Electoral Reform Society, said: "It is a scandal that millions of people's voices in the West Midlands were ignored in June's General Election.

Undemocratic

"Almost two million votes are being thrown on the electoral scrapheap in the region, under Westminster's broken first past the post voting system.

"At the same time, we see that almost one in five people are swapping parties in the West Midlands – an historically high rate – yet our old-fashioned voting system is failing to keep up. Voters across the region are being let down by the out-of-date and undemocratic way we cast our ballots for the Commons."

Mr Hughes, who was previously deputy chief executive, and a former New Zealand Minister and MP, took over at the helm last month.

Planning to make extensions easier

APPLYING for planning permission in Dudley is set to get easier, according to council chiefs.

Proposals due to get the green light later this month will see Dudley Council adopt a new local development order. This will allow people to obtain written consent for single or two-storey, rear or side extensions.

Growing business is clearly a favourite with its customers

Commercial feature

MARKET leading Stourbridge double glazing business Carera Windows has fitted more than half a million quality windows and doors over the past 28 years.

The company based in Junction Road, Audnam, started out 28 years ago to serve the Stourbridge area but as it has grown it has moved on to serve neighbouring areas including Halesowen, Kidderminster, Bromsgrove and Worcester.

The business moved to its present base 20 years ago. Carera offer a full range of windows and doors and also install a full range of conservatories, orangeries and living spaces.

Happy

The company prides itself on having a depth of knowledge in all aspects of the products it offers and industry regulations. The company is fully conversant with all current regulations within the industry. A key aim is to provide a level of customer service that is second to none.

More than 70 per cent of all Carera Windows' home sales come via personal recommendation from happy clients, which number many thousands. It takes pride in completing every project to the highest standard.

From the start, Carera is committed to offering only top-quality products, expert installations and unbeatable personal service to both private and commercial customers. Its experienced team is committed to working closely with local authorities, education authorities, landlords, architects and contractors on its commercial work. Carera Windows is keen to get involved in any kind of commercial project from industrial units to office conversions, new build to refurbishments and renovations.

Attractive doors and windows complement the room setting

The company's showroom at its base is open Monday to Friday, 9am to 5pm and Saturday, 10am to 4pm. It offers a wide range of products in various sizes and colours, manufactured using PVCu, aluminium, GRP and hardwood. Carera also installs entrance doors, sliding patio doors, french double doors and porches

Carera Windows was started by owner and managing director Mark Crompton in 1989, originally from home as a small enterprising double glazing company supplying the local area. Its housing association glazing contracts and commercial premises work now also takes the business across the country.

Carera prides itself on offering honest and professional expert advice, installing 100 per cent high quality products, sensible prices and outstanding customer service.

It has become a market leader in its area and aims to provide a friendly service without hard sell.

Carera can supply and fit from a single window to complex orangeries and no job is too small or too large for it. The company controls every aspect of its projects.

Not so sweet, Jon Bon Jovi

Wall of rock spills beans on legends

So, what is it like to hang out with rock stars? Well, that depends on which rock star you happen to be hanging out with. In the case of Ozzy Osbourne, for example, it has always been very easy.

If you recall Ozzy from his hit TV reality show, The Osbournes, you'll have a good idea already. The main word is 'funny'. Ozzy is hilarious. He can't help it. He just is. A very dry sense of humour, delivered with that singsong Brummie accent.

From the first time I met Ozzy, at a rehearsal studio in London in 1980, down on his luck at the time after being sacked from Black Sabbath for being 'too crazy' even for them, all I seemed to do was laugh. For years his wife Sharon and I used to joke that Ozzy should have his own comedy show on telly, never imagining that in the future such a thing as 'reality TV' would exist.

Legendary rock writer MICK WALL tells the Chronicle what it's like hanging out with legends such as Guns 'n' Roses, Led Zeppelin, Black Sabbath and Lou Reed as a preview to his spoken word evening at Bilston's Robin 2 in December.

The last time I saw Ozzy was when he and Sabbath played in Birmingham earlier this year. Ozzy was staying in such an enormous hotel suite it came with its own butler. He hadn't changed one bit.

"Bloody hell, it's Mick!" he boomed across the vast space of his 'reception' room. "Come and feel the bolt in me neck!"

He was referring to the slab of surgical steel that now sits pinning his shoulder together, the result of his infamous quad bike accident. "Now I really am the godfather of heavy metal," he laughed. Not all rock stars are as good fun as Ozzy, though.

Some, like Jon Bon Jovi, are much more serious offstage than you would ever imagine from their upbeat image. I knew Jon before he got famous and he was like a kid in a sweet shop. Then after hits like 'Livin' On A Prayer' turned him into a superstar, he seemed to live life with a permanent frown on his face.

Then there are the deeply mysterious ones like Led Zeppelin's leader and guitarist Jimmy Page. On a visit to his mansion one day, Jimmy took me into a room where he sat in an armchair. Like some James Bond villain, he had a secret panel of buttons built into it.

Jimmy pushed one and the opposite wall slid back to reveal four massive oil paintings. "What do you make of these?" he asked, nonchalantly. I walked over and had a closer look. All the paintings seemed to depict similar scenes. Some sort of lavishly depicted ancient garden in which there were tiny forms of hundreds of humans writhing in pain and torment.

"Very nice," I said with a straight face. Then he took me outside and showed me the garden. It was about the size of the West Midlands.

For most rock stars it really is all about girls and cars, though.

Phil and I would walk into a pub and he would tell me to grab a table and wait for him. I'd sit down while he stood at the bar, jacket collar up, stooped over looking glum. Within minutes a young woman would walk over and ask him what was wrong, why he was so down? Phil would sigh. Then another young woman, sometimes two or three would join him and want to know the same thing.

He would buy a tray of drinks and lead the girls over to the table where I was sitting. I would be expected to help keep the talk going while Phil would lead the girls outside one by one, and, well, get to know them better.

When it comes to cars, it's hard to think of any rock star I have known that has been more obsessed than the late Status Quo guitarist Rick Parfitt. He would ring me sometimes and hold his phone next to whatever new revving engine he'd just acquired – could be a brand new Porsche, or a vintage Rolls Royce. "Just listen to her purr," he'd say, almost purring himself. He'd soon grow bored with them though and go and buy another.

I recall one occasion when I visited him at his riverside home in London, and he took me to see his brand new Bentley Continental. He proudly showed me around the car, told me the whole story about how he was one of the first 50 people in the world to have one.

I rang him a couple of weeks later and asked how he was getting on with his new car.

"Oh, that," he said. "I sold it. Bought myself a brand new Merc." Or was it another Roller? I can't remember now. Whatever it was, it would definitely have purred though.

X Factor's Diana has Look of Love

Diana Vickers, who found fame on X Factor, will recreate the magic of Dusty Springfield when she stars in Son of a Preacher Man at Birmingham's New Alexandra Theatre from Tuesday to September 16.

The production tells the story of three broken hearts, one Soho hang-out, and the only man who could ever help them.

Diana was thrilled to be asked and announced the role on Instagram: "Very excited to announce I will be starring in the brand new stage show of Son of a Preacher Man.

"Very much looking forward to working with a great team on what I think will be a gem of a show! Hope to see some of you there."

Choreographer Craig Revel Horwood added: "I am delighted to bring to life for the very first time this wonderful story created by Warner Brown, with soulful songs from the legendary Dusty Springfield's iconic music catalogue.

"I hope that audiences will come to love this warm-hearted and uplifting new musical as much as I do."

New Alexandra Theatre spokeswoman Fiona McCartney says: "Welcome to The Preacher Man, the swinging 1960s Soho joint where the kids danced the night away to the latest crazes and dared to dream of love, while the legendary owner, The Preacher Man himself, dispensed advice to cure the loneliest of hearts.

"Only, that was a long time ago and all that remains are the memories, the stories and the myths. Until now, that is, when three random strangers, generations apart but all in need of help with their hopeless love lives, are inexplicably drawn to the site of the original venue.

"The Preacher Man is long gone, but his son, with help from the wonderful Cappuccino Sisters, might just find it in himself to channel the spirit of The Preacher Man and once more give these three lovesick strangers the look of love."

ATTENTION

The play features the greatest hits of Dusty Springfield, including The Look Of Love, I Only Want To Be With You, Spooky and the classic Son Of A Preacher Man.

Directed and choreographed by Strictly Come Dancing's Craig, it stars Diana (Little Voice, Rocky Horror Show, X Factor), Debra Stephenson (The Impressions Show, Bad Girls, Coronation Street) and Ian Reddington (Benidorm, Shameless, Robin Hood).

Diana first came to the public's attention when she was a semi-finalist on the 2008 edition of X Factor. She hit the road with her fellow finalists after the show before landing a career in the West End.

She had been prepared for stardom by taking singing lessons as a youngster in Blackburn – though she didn't sing professionally until adulthood.

Her X Factor entry came about with a cover of Damien Rice's hit The Blower's Daughter, which dazzled Louis Walsh and Cheryl Cole among others. Simon Cowell described her as a Marmite artist – who he loved.

He later signed her to his label and her debut album, Songs from the Tainted Cherry Tree, later became a number one and earned her a gold disc.

Gradually, the star also developed an acting career after starring in a newly-revived West End production of Jim Cartwright's The Rise and Fall of Little Voice in October 2009 at the Vaudeville Theatre, on The Strand, London.

She played a character called Little Voice, impersonating such singers as Shirley Bassey, Edith Piaf

Diana will bring the hits of Dusty Springfield back to life

Hard work – in rehearsals

Star cast – Debra, Ian and Diana

She's got X Factor – Diana and Judy Garland.

 She also moved into the movies after landing a debut film role alongside Clint Eastwood's son in The Perfect Wave, which was about surfing and the power of life and death. Diana developed a fashion line, described as boho-chic and hippie-influenced, that was inspired by Brigitte Bardot and Marilyn Monroe. And she has remained busy ever since, combining her fashion dreams with roles in theatre.

Most recently, she played Janet in a touring production of The Rocky Horror Picture Show. And there are plenty more roles that she'd like to play. She's a fan of Grease and would like to play Sandy. "I'd love to. Although Rizzo would be incredible, you'd rather be Rizzo wouldn't you, because she's just sexier? I like bad characters!"

Though she works formidably hard, Diana takes time out to switch off and relax. Her favourite hobby is reading and she gets sucked into a good book.

"I do a lot of baking when I'm stressed. And I love exercising, running, gym classes, yoga, interval training. Then just normal things like chilling with my friends, playing music loudly . . . and having a glass of wine after the show always helps!"

The Human League

1980s hit-makers are in a League of their own

One of the biggest British bands of the 1980s will be giving fans Electric Dreams when they perform at Wolverhampton Racecourse on Saturday.

Synth pop legends The Human League will be in concert following a race meeting on September 9.

The Sheffield new wave outfit, led by Phil Oakey and also featuring vocals from Joanne Catherall and Susan Ann Sulley, will play as part of The SunBets Music Live 2017 meeting at Dunstall's all-weather track.

The band, famed for their cross-Atlantic number one hit Don't You Want Me – which sold more than 20 million – will play their classic 1980s hits including Love Action, Mirror Man, Fascination and Human.

When the group played in the city in December 2014 at the Civic Hall, an Express & Star review of that gig hailed the group as 'modern pop music perfection'.

The Human League have returned to the area in recent years and they performed at Uttoxeter Racecourse last year, marking 35 years since the release of their best-selling album Dare!

Since 1978, the Human League have released nine studio albums, four EPs and 30 singles with Don't You Want Me entering the top 20 again just four years ago.

Tickets to the event start from £35.95 with family tickets for £110. These can be bought directly from the racecourse by calling 01902 390 000 or online at the wolverhampton-racecourse.co.uk website.

The flat racing takes place from 5.25 to 8.30pm with the concert held after the final race.

Dave is back on the home Beat

The Beat, featuring original co-frontman and singer Dave Wakeling, have a homecoming gig in Birmingham for the musician who now resides in Los Angeles.

The gig on Friday, September 15, part of a UK tour, is Wakeling's first in the city since the death of the original band's Birmingham-based veteran saxophonist Saxy.

Wakeling has been putting the finishing touches to his first studio album under The Beat moniker since Special Beat Service in 1982. Tentatively titled Here We Go Love, it's an album of uplifting ska rhythms, infectious pop hooks and some Californian sunshine which reflects Wakeling's adopted home.

The Beat exploded out of Brum in 1979 as part of the same ska/rock/reggae scene that launched The Specials and UB40. Dave Wakeling enjoyed further success in the States with supergroup General Public and released a solo album No Warning in 1991.

Wakeling has played an estimated thousand shows as the frontman of The English Beat, most in the USA where he continues to command a devoted audience.

Straddling 2 Tone, ska and post-punk, The Beat had a host of hits – including Mirror In The Bathroom, Too Nice To Talk To, Hands Off She's Mine and hit covers of Tears Of A Clown and Can't Get Used To Losing You.

For tickets to see Wakeling's seven-piece incarnation of The Beat at Birmingham's O2 Academy 2, supported by Frantic Action and Ruder Than U, see academymusicgroup.com/02academybirmingham/ website.

Another version of The Beat, featuring Ranking Roger, are touring with The Selecter.

Whip smart play is domestic drama

A powerful play about privilege, power and how the past can affect the present is being staged at Birmingham Rep's venue The Door.

The Whip Hand by Scottish playwright Douglas Maxwell is a domestic drama set in Glasgow. When Dougie chooses his 50th birthday party to right an old wrong, it causes a family rift. With Jonathan Watson, from TV sit-com Two Doors Down, as Dougie, The Whip Hand runs at The Door until next Saturday, September 16.

Marvelettes time for Tamla Motown fans

Motown legends The Marvelettes are coming to the Black Country. Soul enthusiast and Northern Soul DJ Hitsville Chalky is bringing the 1960s girl group over from Detroit for a concert at Brierley Hill Civic Hall on Friday, September 15.

The Marvelettes, who were actually signed to Tamla until that merged with sister label Motown, had one of the label's first US hits with chart-topper Please Mr Postman and had a UK hit with When You're Young And In Love.

The group features original member Katherine Anderson. There will also be DJ sets from Hitsville Chalky, Gary Parker and Catacombs legend Pep. For tickets see tickets.bhllcivic.co.uk/boxoffice/book/1056 or call 01384 573381.

Radzi Chinyanganya

Cannonball
(ITV, 7pm)

Andrew Flintoff hosts the action-packed game show, in which 24 contestants are tasked with traversing a series of water-based challenges and custom-made inflatable obstacles, each designed to test their speed, accuracy, height and distance. The most successful contestants then claim a chance to launch themselves 'cannonball-style' at a moving target on the surface of a deep-water tank, all in the hope of nabbing the show's 'priceless' Cannonball Cup. Frankie Bridge, Radzi Chinyanganya, Ryan Hand and Maya Jama all join Andrew at the poolside to commentate on the action.

The travellers then discover they have strayed into the territory of a ferocious crocodile and face a battle for survival. Thriller, starring Radha Mitchell. (2007)

Duo are caught up in a web of intrigue in new series

Typical – you wait months for a new six-part series from Jack and Harry Williams, the writers and creators of The Missing, and then two come along at once.

Yes, on the same evening that BBC launched Relik (it's spelled backwards, I can assure you were wondering), ITV brings us Liar. At first glance, the Beeb's series bears more of the Williams' hallmarks – just as The Missing played out across different timelines, Relik starts with capture of a serial killer, and then goes back to the beginning to explore what made them into a murderer.

However, Liar has a simpler idea, which was part of the plan. The Williams siblings say: "We were excited about exploring something with more dramatic simplicity – a linear story focusing on one single incident."

"In Liar we sought to explore modern day gender politics through a narrative built upon two fundamentally conflicting recollections of one night, in a way which we hope will challenge and surprise audiences."

If that wasn't intriguing enough, the series also boasts an impressive cast, including Downton Abbey's Joanne Froggatt and one-time Fantastic Four star Ioan Gruffudd, who was tempsed from Hollywood to tackle his role in Liar.

He says: "The reason I'm back home in the UK, and back on British television for the first time in a decade is Harry and Jack's script. I received their scripts in LA, the first three episodes, and sat down to read the first one and then proceeded to read all of them in one go. I just couldn't put them down."

He stars as Andrew Earlam, a widowed surgeon who is set up on a date with his colleague's sister Laura (Froggatt), who also happens to be Andrew's son's teacher. She's been reluctant to look for love following the end of her long-term relationship, but their date initially seems to go very well.

However, the morning after it's clear that something has changed as gossip and accusations begin to circulate, and the two find themselves drawn into a web of deceit.

Gruffudd says: "When Andrew is accused it offends him greatly, his status in the community is very important to him. He's a very proud of what he's achieving, and I think it shakes him to his core, he's angry, and he's shocked. I think one of the driving forces of his anger is the fact that how he is perceived by the world has changed, and I think that really makes him angry."

But is he right to feel aggrieved? It seems that getting to the truth is not going to be easy. Gruffudd says: "The character in the show has secrets that are revealed at some point or another. We all hide things from one another, we all tell white lies, innocent lies, and sometimes those lies can be exaggerated and can have real consequences. So, not every person in the series is who they are cracked up to be..."

Ioan Gruffudd stars in Liar, Monday, ITV, 9pm

BEST OF THE REST

MONDAY

Upstart Crow

BBC2, 8.30pm

New series. Will is desperate to make a good impression with the College of Heralds so he can get his family a coat of arms and finally make the Shakespearian posh. So when African royal Prince Otello comes to town, the aspiring playwright decides that befriending him is the perfect opportunity to make a favourable impression amongst the gentry. David Mitchell returns as William Shakespeare in Ben Elton's comedy, guest starring Steve Toussaint, with Harry Enfield, Paula Wilcox, Liza Tarbuck and Mark Heap.

TUESDAY

Horizon: Mars - A Traveller's Guide

BBC2, 9pm

The world's leading experts discuss where they would go on Mars, if they got the chance, and what they would need to survive on the planet. In the ultimate traveller's guide to Mars and using real images and data, Horizon brings Martian landmarks to life, from vast plains and towering volcanoes to deep valleys and hidden underground caverns, and also show where to land, where to live and even where to hunt for traces of extraterrestrial life. Narrated by Mark Gatiss.

WEDNESDAY

The Other One

BBC1, 10pm

A comedy about two sisters who share the same name, Catherine Walcott, but had no idea the other existed until their father passed away. One sister, Cathy, has a fiance, a Duke of Edinburgh Award, and a pension. The other sister, Cat, has a pay-as-you-go phone. The two sisters are complete opposites in every way, and the only thing they seem to have in common are their names. Both of them have always longed for a sister – just maybe not each other. Starring Ellie White, Lauren Socha and Rebecca Front.

THURSDAY

No Limits: Vietnam

BBC1, 8pm

For the curious with long memories, this is not a revival of the old Lisa Maxwell/Jenny Powell entertainment series from 30-plus years ago. Instead, it centres on six Britons who embark on an ambitious road trip by modified motorbike and modified 4x4 along Vietnam's Ho Chi Minh Trail. A tricky enough trek for the able bodied, but as everyone on the journey is disabled, travelling almost 1,000 miles, through traffic-jammed cities to mountainous rural tracks pushes our ambitious travellers to breaking point. They will be staying with remote indigenous people; exploring stunning cave systems, and meeting locals – many of who live with disability of the Vietnam War. A refreshingly different travelogue which should inspire millions.

Lego Masters

Channel 4, 8pm

The three remaining teams are challenged to create a build that reflects the inner workings of a child's storytelling imagination. They must each listen to a six-year old's story and then have three hours to bring their tales to life using Lego. The best two then take part in the final master build, for which they have two weeks to realise a structure measuring 2x2 metres and using up to half-a-million bricks. They will be unveiled to the public at the Design Museum in London, where comedian and Lego enthusiast Dara O Briain joins Matthew Ashton to choose the winner. Last in the series.

FRIDAY

Cold Feet

ITV, 9pm

Baby-making miscommunication drives a wedge between Adam and Tina, while Karen's new business partner is concerned by the health of her accounts. Jenny inadvertently drops her colleagues in it when she tells her boss they could afford to lose a few employees. She will get to choose who makes the cut, but back home Pete is horrified by her behaviour and begins to wonder just what he has unleashed. Comedy drama, starring James Nesbitt, Leanne Best, Hermione Norris, John Thomson, Fay Ripley and Robert Bathurst.

Comedy Playhouse: *Static

BBC1, 10.35pm

One-off sitcom about a man who makes plans to move back in with his parents – only to find they have sold the house and moved to a static caravan park in Margate. Co-written by and starring Rob Beckett, with Alison Steadman and Phil Davis.

Finnish off with Moomin magic

TOSSED between clawing waves with only a wooden oar and magician's top hat, Moominpappa embarks on a whimsical journey to find a distant lighthouse.

It's 34 years since I read the story of a snooty patriarch who frolics with seahorses and befriends The Groke, a desperately lonely figure scarred with a permanent scowl, who turns ground to ice wherever she treads.

But I do recall a handwritten inscription in my copy of Moominpappa At Sea, promising the Moomins would take me on a special adventure one day.

Now I'm standing in front of a first edition illustrated book sleeve, part of a 2,000-strong collection of drawings, triptychs and related paraphernalia on rotated display at the world's only Moomin Museum, which recently opened in Tampere, a two-hour train ride north from Helsinki.

PHENOMENON

Since Finnish artist, sculptor and illustrator Tove Jansson published her first book in 1945, the magical Moominvalley has become a worldwide cult phenomenon; children are drawn to the playful, fanciful characters, while the droll humour and philosophical allegories resonate with an older audience.

Tove's Moomin work was donated to the Tampere Art Museum in 1986, after Helsinki City Museum declined the collection on the basis it wasn't 'proper art'. A temporary exhibition of 100 pieces in the Tampere gallery's basement lasted for three decades, until structural damage resulted in an evacuation three years ago.

Moomin Museum Director Taina Myllyharju was given an 'almost unlimited' budget to employ the best architects, artists and designers in her quest for creating a new space in the park-fringed Tampere Hall.

Visitors to the impressive Helsinki Cathedral

The Rauhaniemi public sauna in Tampere

A reading library stocks the 12 Moomin books in multiple languages, and a shop sells themed postcards and stamps (conveniently, there's a postbox on site) and exclusive merchandise given the seal of approval by Tove's niece, Sophia Jansson.

"We even have the world's only Moomin conservator," Taina proudly proclaims.

Restoring the works, particularly the detailed triptychs Tove worked on with her life partner, graphic artist Tuulikki Pietila, was a painstaking business. Often, the women would use anything they could find lying around in the summer cottage they shared on remote island Klovharu. These colourful 3D scenes were ephemeral snatches of imagination; they weren't designed to last.

Crossing a wasteland on spindly, insect-leg stilts, Moomintroll and Sniff stare up at a cobweb-shrouded model schooner. The Jansson family heirloom forms the centrepiece of a tableau from the apocalyptic Comet in Moominland, which critics have linked to post-war gloom and the looming spectre of nuclear attacks.

And in another carefully crafted model, pieces of Pietila's and Tove's own jewellery festoon a winter scene where Christmas is a fearful creature who must be appeased with a fir tree.

I get the impression that with every seashell collected and each piece of Styrofoam painted and glued, the two artists climbed further into their fantasy world and the act of doing became a form of escapism.

Under the cover of darkness, I comfortably sink into the Moomin's make-believe world, with the help of several interactive displays

Attractive and spacious detached family home

An attractive and spacious four-bedroomed detached family home, 17, Mansion Close, Earls Keep, Dudley, is for sale through Taylors at £258,000.

With gas central heating and double glazing, the home comes with an integral garage and lies on a fine corner plot upon the favoured 'Earls Keep' development, where properties of this category are rarely made available.

The property has been significantly upgraded by present vendor with a stylish refitted kitchen (with a matching utility section), a re-appointed cloakroom/WC, a bathroom and a shower room en-suite.

There is also a resurfaced driveway (with brick edging detailing) and a secluded rear garden and a chipped slate border to side.

The elegant lounge has a bay window, an 'antique pine' over mantle to a cast grate with polished highlights and 'Art Deco' tiled cheeks on a black marble effect. It also has engineered oak flooring and double doors through to the dining room, which in turn has French doors opening out to the garden, and again engineered oak flooring.

The refitted kitchen has inset chrome finish down-lighters to the ceiling, an extensive range of 'satin cream' finish wall and base units with grey roll edge work surfaces, an integrated four ring hob with a fan assisted electric oven below and a glass/stainless steel filter hood above. There is also an integrated dishwasher and tiled flooring. The utility section has matching 'satin cream' finish base units, tiled splashbacks and plumbing for a washing machine.

Bedroom one overlooks the front and has double built-in wardrobes and a re-appointed shower room en-suite with a white contemporary suite.

Bedroom two is L-shaped and also has views over the front. It has dormer-style windows and a double built-in wardrobe.

Bedrooms three and four have views overlooking the rear garden.

The reappointed/part tiled bathroom includes chrome finished down-lighters, a chrome finish heated towel rail and a white contemporary style suite with chrome detailing.

Mazda6 is an impressive to drive saloon and estate

By James Parker

Mazda's Mondeo-rivalling family car has long been regarded as one of the best cars in its class, even if the sales figures have never quite lived up to the reviews. Now, though, the family four-door has been updated to become more refined and even better to drive. It's a tough ask for a car that's already a brilliant drive, but Mazda thinks it has managed it.

This has been achieved, the Japanese brand says, through an updated interior, some vibration damping in the engine and a new torque vectoring system called G-Vectoring Control, or GVC, for short. Torque vectoring is something normally reserved for four-wheel-drive cars, sending the power to each axle as required, but this system is designed to increase grip by subtly braking on turn-in and transferring weight onto the front wheels.

Even those who look closely would be hard pushed to spot the difference between the 2017 Mazda6 and its predecessor – mainly because there are almost no external changes. Both use the same Kodo design language and feature flowing lines, a gaping grille and both look stunning in Mazda's Soul Red Metallic paint.

Inside, there are more noticeable upgrades, such as the new centre console and the updated steering wheel, but otherwise it's a very familiar place to sit.

With unchanged dimensions both inside and out, the Mazda6 is every bit as practical as its predecessor. The saloon boasts 480 litres of boot space, while the estate manages to squeeze 522 litres into its load bay – much the same volume as can be found in a Ford Mondeo estate.

The cabin space is equally generous, with plenty of head and legroom for adults in all four of the main seats. The middle perch on the bench seat may be a little less comfortable for journeys of any distance, but it's good enough to carry children on short trips.

Mazda has made much of its refinement improvements with this iteration of the 6, but it's difficult to tell how much of a difference has been made without driving the two cars back-to-back.

It isn't noticeably quieter than its predecessor, and it feels as though reducing the panel gap tolerances was a lot of trouble to go to for no reward, but then the 6 was already at the point of diminishing marginal returns – where each one per cent improvement was going to get harder and harder to come by.

The introduction of GVC, however, has made a more tangible difference. You can feel the car decelerate slightly as you turn in, pushing weight onto the front wheels. The result is an increase in grip, but it does scrub a little cornering speed, so that may be half the effect.

Even so, the Mazda6 is still an impressive car to drive, with nicely weighted steering and body control that belies its bulk, and thanks to engineering witchcraft, it's also comfortable, ironing out our pockmarked roads without fuss.

The Mazda6's pricing hasn't changed with the introduction of the 2017 car, so prices still start from £19,995 for the basic saloon and rise to £29,295 for the top-of-the-range estate.

You do, however, get more for your money, with colour-topping Sport Nav models getting an enhanced colour head-up display, a heated steering wheel and traffic sign recognition, while mid-range SE-L cars get power-folding mirrors as standard and an autonomous low-speed braking system.

The Mazda6 has undoubtedly benefitted from its maker's modifications, but it's a small margin of improvement. Nevertheless, the changes make it an even worthier contender in this marketplace, appealing to families that want to use their car for long-distance touring every bit as much as the Ford Mondeo and VW Passat.

CHASE AWAY THOSE POST - HOLIDAY BLUES

A BRAND-NEW MG3 COULD BE YOURS FROM JUST £99 PER MONTH

With summer holidays coming to an end, now is the time to look at what you'll be driving when you go back to work, college or university in September. With interest free credit, there has never been a better time to invest in a new car packed full of extras.

The daily commute could now be enjoyed for as little as £99 per month, or with a minimum part exchange of £1,500, if you take advantage of the colourful, fun and sporty MG3. With four trims in the range, there's a car for every budget. The entry level MG3 Time is a whopping £4,000 cheaper than the equivalent Fiesta, coming in at just £8,695.

A highly competitive price doesn't mean the MG3 lacks high-spec features. Each model comes with a dazzling array of technology as standard; a refreshing change from competitors that offer an endless list of additional expenses. The top-of-the-range MG3 Style+ includes cruise control, 16" diamond alloys, Bluetooth connectivity, reverse parking sensors and leather seats as standard. Not bad for a car that costs just £11,695.

The MG3 also has an exceptional amount of space and versatility, hidden in a very compact five-door package. Accommodating five, 6ft tall individuals easily, the MG3 offers an extraordinary amount of space for a compact car.

Customisation is key to chasing away those post-holiday blues. Available in eight trendy colour options, the MG3 also benefits from a range of graphic packs, with designs from classic Trophy Stripe to sleek Waves, all from just £280, excluding fitting. Or why not go for a subtle touch of colour with wasabi, pink or red mirror caps from just £70, while black, white, red and grey accents are available for your wheels from just £720.

Praised for its sporty performance, great handling, spacious boot and stylish design, the MG3 is a very popular car for first time drivers. Complete with a class-leading 4E insurance rating, the MG3 is cheaper to run than many other Superminis, making it a perfect car for those looking for affordable and customisable style.

Sparring partners go head-to-head in ring

MANNY ZABER and Jack Summers will renew acquaintances after the draw for Black Country Boxing's Super Series: The Super Featherweights was made.

Eight Midlands boxers will compete over three nights to be crowned the Midlands Area Super Featherweight Champion. Quarter-finals take place at Walsall Town Hall on Sunday, October 15, over six three-minute rounds.

Old Hill's Zaber and West Bromwich's Summers are both managed by BCB head of boxing, Errol Johnson, and have shared the ring countless times as sparring partners. Zaber boasts a superior record but Summers is a tough competitor who will be looking to cause an upset.

Chasetown's Luke Jones steps in with Leicester's Joe Ducker.

There's a Second City derby as Birmingham's Paul Holt meets fellow Brummie Waqas Mohammed, while former stablemates and fellow Tamworth residents Louis Fielding and Tamworth's Josh Baillie go head-to-head.

Former footballers Tony Daley, Chris Marsh and Peter Bodak

Chris Marsh, Chris Nicholl, Wayne Thomas and Ray Graydon

Players on oche for more Grand Slams

THERE will be, at least, another two Grand Slam of Darts at Wolverhampton Civic Hall after the PDC released their tournament calendar for 2018.

The competition will see its 10th anniversary at the Civic in the usual month of November and will also return next year.

Holder Michael Van Gerwen will be back for this year's Slam, from November 11-19. Six-time winner, 57-year-old Phil Taylor, will be featuring for the last time.

New sponsors have come on board to back the next two Grand Slams, Austrian-based betting company Bwin replacing Thai brewers Singha Beer.

Tipton's Jamie Hughes is on course to be the Black Country presence, due to his world ranking of No.3 with rival organisation the BDO. One player from the BDO will feature in each of the eight groups with those certain of their places being Glen Durrant and Danny Noppert, plus the Grand Slam debut of Peter Machin, 2017 World trophy winner.

The 2018 Grand Slam has been booked at the Civic for November 10-18.

Phoenix rise to occasion against old favourites

SPORTING FEATURE

By Joseph Masi

A HOST of football favourites rolled back the years in an exhibition match to raise money for grassroots football.

Stars including Don Goodman, Martin O'Connor, Tony Daley, Lee Naylor and James Chambers were all in attendance as a Midland Ace Legends side played out a 3-2 thriller with Walsall Phoenix Veterans.

The event was held to raise funds for Phoenix, who play their trade in the Staffordshire County Senior League Premier Division.

In glorious sunshine at Aldridge Cricket Club, more than 1,500 people packed in to watch the game and enjoy a host of other attractions including live music, food stalls, bouncy castles, inflatable games and a licensed bar. There was also a 20-team football tournament with junior sides from across the region.

Walsall heroes Ray Graydon and Chris Nicholl took charge of the Midlands Ace Legends' side.

Delighted

But the managerial greats couldn't add another win to their glittering CVs – with Phoenix running out victors.

Their boss, Tom Revitt, admitted he was delighted with how the day went. "It was absolutely great for our lads to play against some big names," he said.

"To share a pitch with someone like Don Goodman is great for people, like me, who have always enjoyed playing lower league football."

"We had a great turnout, more than 1,500. And what was nice is that football was only half the day. We had live bands, plenty of entertainment for children and a junior football tournament as well."

"It took a lot of work but it's crucial we hold events like this."

"As a club we have got 25 teams now and the cost to run them last year was £60,000. "We don't have the opportunity to bring in big money through sponsorship – although some of the local businesses do help.

"This event will prove a huge benefit for us in terms of raising money to keep paying those running costs. We hope it will be the first of many."

The Midlands Ace Legends side had been put together by former Walsall midfielder Wayne Thomas. He is now hoping to hold more fundraising matches with other grassroots sides, as well as charities, across the region.

"We put together the Midlands Ace Legends because at charity days or fundraisers there is an appeal to have players who have played for different clubs across the region," Thomas said.

"Chris Marsh is a very good friend of mine and has a lot of contacts."

"We put this side together so when people ask about fundraising days we can cater for all football fans in the West Midlands."

"We had a lovely day, a great turnout and hopefully we'll be able to support other clubs and charities in the future." Arguably the biggest draw on the day was former Saddlers boss Graydon, who twice won promotion during his time in charge at the Banks's Stadium.

The former Villa winger also netted the winning goal in the 1975 League Cup final.

And the 70-year-old, who now lives in Hampshire, admitted he thoroughly enjoyed being back in the Midlands.

"It was fantastic for me to be back around supporters of Walsall," he said. "I absolutely loved it. I wanted to come back because I think events like this are so important."

"It costs an awful lot of money to run a football club, just to keep going, so I'm very happy to help."

Spectator Maurice Walsh, from Bloxwich, said everyone enjoyed the day.

"I really enjoyed it and it was great to get autographs from the ex-pros," he said. "I think having a Midlands Ace Legends side is a very good way to raise money for grassroots football."

DK runners successful in city marathon

DUDLEY Kingswinford Running Club members didn't have far to travel with a combination of races taking place in Wolverhampton as part of the city's marathon.

Darran Bishop was first home for the hoops in the half marathon, covering the 13.1 mile distance in 1.26.54 to take 18th place. Dave Norman was not too far behind finishing in 1.28.37 in 21st place and Mark Homer was breathing down his neck in 23rd in 1.29.24.

Helen Tromans claimed first place in the ladies race and was invited into the hospitality tent as a result, claiming 31st place overall in a time of 1.31.19.

Roger Beddard was 143rd in 1.46.00, Nick Ma was 263rd in 1.55.22, Hannah McGuire was 384th in 2.08.57 and Lisa Kendrick finished a place and one second behind. Nicola Wilkinson finished in 541st in 2.41.03.

Taking on the shorter 10k race at the same event Simon Hughes put his lack of training aside to come home in 40.44 to take 20th place and Kathryn Sneyd was 86th in 50.57.

Stretton

Elsewhere, Richard Bate took part in the Stretton Skyline, a 19-mile fell race over the Shropshire hills taking in some thigh-burning climbs up Raggleth, Caer Caradoc, Lawley and the Long Mynd.

Despite a couple of navigation errors which added the best part of a mile to the course, Bate finished in a respectable 3 hours 10 minutes.

Eighth defeat of season puts side in seventh spot

WITH two matches remaining Stourbridge conceded their eighth defeat of the season against Sentinel.

Stour are in seventh position in division three of the Birmingham and District league. Four teams face relegation to the recreational leagues.

Brewood and Worcester Nomads who hold the two bottom spots have each lost 13 matches and must be the favourites for the drop. Two more from pack of six including Stour are vulnerable to be in the drop zone depending on the outcomes of the two remaining games.

Put in to bat Stour went past the double hundred their top order doing a job. Harshad Patel (44), Jujhar Johal (78), Zain Ul Hassan (44) and a cameo of 45 off 21 balls from Matt Bradley. Andrew Harrison took four wickets in the final overs of the 50 overs match for 38 runs off 10 overs. He restricted Stour from the big shots that were needed to get them to a safety.

In the Sentinel knock Stour bowlers struggled on a batting wicket to take wickets and contain the run rate.

Stourbridge withstand Otley fightback

Otley 21 Stourbridge 42

THE starting line up included four making their debut for Stourbridge, captain Sam Pailor, Niall Gibbons, Steve Leach and George Morgan.

Stour also welcomed back Lily Griffiths who last played for the club nine years ago and Jack Spencer. On the bench was Charlie Jeavons-Felows, extending the J-F Dynasty by another generation.

The crowd saw the visitors get off to a flying start when, after just four minutes, full back Joe Heatley was sent over to get the first points of the season. Chris Scott added the extras and it was game on!

A strong carry by Sam Pailor led to a penalty in front of the posts with the visitors opting for the three points taken by Scott. Otley kicked off the second half and it only took two minutes for another debut try, this time by Morgan after he had ghosted through several tackles. Just four minutes later the ball was sent to Niall Gibbons for another debut try which was converted by Petty.

A superb forwards effort drove over the line on 52 minutes giving Stour a 32-point lead including a Petty conversion. However, the hosts fought back to 14-32 and were further rewarded when substitute Henry Watson cleverly gathered a pass almost behind him to score under the posts. Rowntree converted and Otley had a losing bonus point in their sights. However, an incisive running line by Dan Rundle gave Stour an overlap which was snapped up by Joe Heatley who ended the game as he started it.

DK OFF TO A WINNING START

DK 45 Stourbridge Lions 12

DUDLEY Kingswinford secured a win in their opening game of the new season with a 45-12 victory over the newly-promoted Stourbridge Lions.

Just before the 10 minute marker a scrum-mage in the Stour 22, saw DK employ a back row move and an excellent line from Sam Pedley saw the flanker in by the posts. With the conversion missed it was 5-0 to DK.

The good work of the opening quarter was almost thrown away when some poor defending from DK saw Lions through but luckily for DK Ryan Smitheman, covered back from the blind-side wing to put a tackle in and Nic Adams who was able to put in a clearance kick.

DK continued to build the pressure towards half time full back Adams was enjoying a good game returning any Lions kicks.

Just before the break, Adams ran the ball back into the Stour half and linked with Stef Shillingford who kept the move going into the 22, the ball was then onto the forwards in a quick ruck.

Swiftly

Jordan Brookes set the backs going back to the left and the ball was passed swiftly to Smitheman, who was outside his man and in the clubhouse corner for a second try to take a 10-0 lead into half time.

The second half saw DK maintain their tempo playing in the Stourbridge half. Will Hancox broke the defensive line and was in the 22, Shillingford supporting was in under the posts, Jordan Brookes added the extras for 17-0.

Sam Pedley charged for the line, DK recycled quickly and the next forward waiting was Arran Hudson, who crashed over for the bonus point try, converted by Adams, for 24-0. Nick Mann reduced the lead to 24-5, with a well taken try.

Pete Griffiths touched down, Adams converted. Then Josh Rowley bagged a second try for the Lions and Joe Carpenter was off under the posts for a penalty try, 38-12. DK's final try was from Ben Brown with Adams adding the extra points.

Cricket T20 proves a smash hit

Himley Cricket Club president Joe Brandrick presents the trophy of Brewood skipper Jamie Lunn

HIMLEY Cricket Club continue to raise the bar with their Black Country Floodlit T20 competition.

Brewood took the spoils when they rounded off a superb week-long tournament with victory over Wolverhampton in the final.

Stourbridge, Wolverhampton, a Staffs Clubs XI and hosts Himley completed the line-up with all sides able to include a number of guest players from other clubs.

It was a case of third time lucky for Brewood after missing out in the previous two finals, the real winners were the local cricket fans.

They were treated to excitement during what by common consent was the best T20 tournament to date.

Bruce Thomason plundered a century for Brewood in the final while Whittington's big-hitting Australian Jayden Levitt also reached three figures for the Staffs Clubs XI and Halesowen respectively. Zimbabwe all-rounder Tendai Chisoro was voted player of the tournament for a series of eye-catching displays that fired Brewood to glory.

"It felt like it was the best competition we have staged so far," said captain Greg Wright.

Stourbridge 2 Halesowen Town 0

A GOAL in either half saw off Halesowen

Town at the War Memorial Ground on Monday night.

Matt Dodd, who left Halesowen last week, was back at Stourbridge and was in the starting XI against his previous employers.

He was outstanding throughout and behind a lot of Stourbridge's attacking play, providing a chance for Josh Green on 15 minutes with a great cross, but again it went wide.

Jordan Archer scored a cracking opener on 32 with a drive from 20 yards that shaved the post before it went in.

Ryan Rowe had the ball in the net just before the break but it was ruled out for offside. But Rowe did get on the scoresheet on 64 minutes when he got a touch to a Jack Duggan header which was going in.

Loughboro Dynamo 1 Stourbridge 3

Stourbridge will entertain Colney Heath in the FA Cup second qualifying round after defeating Loughborough on Saturday.

The Glassboys - who reached last season's third round proper, beating League One Northampton Town along the way - were on top throughout the game. The home side offered little in attack though Edison Antonio headed wide just before the break.

Stour have also signed winger Pierce Kiembi from Chasetown, along with midfielder Alex Solomon.

Yeltz in a second half cup nightmare

Halesowen Town 0 Basford United 3

OUT-CLASSED Halesowen were dumped out of the FA Cup by lower league Basford after conceding three goals in a disastrous eight minutes at the start of the second half.

There was little to choose between the teams in an even first period. Bradley Lewis cleared off the line from Basford's Kieran Wells and Halesowen's Luke Shearer blazed over the bar just before the interval.

But it all went wrong after the break for Halesowen as Basford romped victory with goals from James Reid, Liam Hearn and Ashley Grayson.

Technical features

- Available from a small 3 leaf to a large 7 leaf system
- Choice of uPVC or aluminium frames
- Enduring performance and easy to use
- Contemporary frame colours including black, white and grey
- Customisable door furniture
- Highly secure and energy efficient

Energy efficiency

Thanks to modern technology, our bifold doors offer impressive thermal performance. They will help to keep your living spaces warm by trapping heat inside. This is great news for when the temperatures drop outside, as you can still enjoy outside views!

Combined with high performance double or triple glazing, your bifold doors will help to reduce energy bills and carbon footprints.

Secure bifold doors

Many people think bifold doors are less secure than a standard patio door because of the amount of glazing - but this isn't the case.

Our bifold doors are manufactured with security in mind, including internal hardware, multi-point locking and toughened glass as standard. You can be sure our bifolding doors are amongst the most robust out there, and will help keep your home safe.
